E. Peters leads readers on an extraordinary journey through centuries of written tradition to uncover the human fingerprints on the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Quran sacred texts that have enriched millions of lives Bringing the latest Biblical and Quranic scholarship to a general audience Peters explains how these three powerfully influential books passed from God's mouth so to speak to become the Scriptures that we possess today He reveals new insights into their origins contents canonization and the important roles they have played in the lives of their communities He explores how they evolved through time from oral to written texts who composed them and who wrote them as well as the theological commonalities and points of disagreement among their adherents Writing in the comparative style for which he is renowned Peters charts the transmission of faith from the spoken word to the printed page from the revelations on Sinai and Mount Hira to Mamluk ateliers in Cairo and Gutenberg's press in Mainz Peters is an acknowledged expert who has written extensively on these three great world religions each of them an inheritor of the faith of Abraham Published in conjunction with an exhibit at the British Library this illustrated book includes beautiful images of the rare editions on exhibit and constitutes Peters's most ambitious and illuminating examination yet of the sacred texts that so inform civilization both East and West The New-century Bible Walter Frederic Adeney, 1922 A Century of Prayer for Christian Unity Catherine E. Jesus but he also commends the character of Jesus and echoes His teachings repeatedly in his letters and sermons in full agreement with the Gospel accounts Stout examines Paul's intriguing description of the Man Christ Jesus 1 Tim 2:5 and suggests that this title fulfills the OT expectation of God appearing in human history as a man In his incarnated humanity the Man Christ Jesus accomplished salvation in the historical events of his life and death and in his resurrected humanity he appeared to Paul on the Damascus Road rooting Paul's Christology deeply in human experience Furthermore Stout shows how Paul rests his concept of salvation on a neglected aspect of his doctrine that the entire church is associated with the historical events of the life death and resurrection of Jesus an association which also unites his church with one another in fellowship and service This book then demonstrates that Paul's gospel rests upon Jesus as a man of history who brings salvation into human history in his life death and exaltation as the Man Christ Jesus Baptist Commonwealth ,1900
