Strathern,Pamela J. Stewart,2020-05-31 In this book Andrew J Strathern and Pamela J Stewart delineate the relationship between language in particular and culture in general by focusing on language as both social practice and a means of classifying and interpreting the world A traditional linguistic approach to a focus on language is illuminated by their anthropological emphasis on the embodiment of relationships and experience In the book the body is placed in the foreground for understanding language in culture which helps in turn to understand how it enables us to adapt to the world of lived material experience Written in an accessible style and drawing on an extensive corpus of primary field research from Papua New Guinea Samoa Japan Taiwan Scotland and Ireland Strathern and Stewart present a world anthropology which links together European North American and Asia Pacific approaches to the topic Students and scholars alike of sociocultural anthropology linguistic anthropology and linguistics will benefit from this engaging work on how the various components of our culture are informed and shaped through language
