Irving Babbitt

Lust Of Power:

Lust for Power Joseph Haroutunian, 2011-06-27 This book is a study of the misuse of power which has become the chief social problem of our time The usual attitude towards will to power is that it is a source of evil and should be held in check as much as possible There is also the contrary attitude that will to power is a natural impulse that is indispensable for a good life Our judgment in this matter depends upon whether it is we who seek power or someone else There is a natural love of power for a good end There is also an unnatural lust for power that makes the exercise of power an end in itself This lust is the corruption of love by a radical distemper in the human soul It cannot be explained in terms of the quest for security freedom prosperity or any other rational good It is not caused either by biological traits or by any particular environment It is generated by man's despair with his destiny by the power of death and the anxious guilt that prevail in human existence Lust for Power is primarily a description of the process by which love of power is changed into lust for power with special emphasis on the new power available in our technological society and upon the despair evoked by the modern world In the last chapter faith and culture are presented as the double antidote to lust and as the conditions of a life at once natural and Lust for power W. N. Chaplin, 1940 Control of Corporations, Persons, and Firms Engaged in Interstate good Commerce United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interstate Commerce, 1913 The Epic of Sounds Freda Winworth.1898 Rousseau and romanticism Irving Babbitt, 1919 Justice Among Nations Thomas L. Pangle, Peter J. Ahrensdorf, 1999 This text provides an introduction to conceptions of international justice spanning 2500 years of intellectual history from Thucydides and Plato to Morgenthau and Waltz It shows how older traditions of political philosophy remain relevant to contemporary debates in international relations Psychology of Politics and History Juhl Adalbert Dewe, 1910 Christian Register and Boston Observer...,1916 The Complete Works of Friedrich Nietzsche: The will to power, tr. by A. M. Ludovici. 1909-10 Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche, Oscar Levy, 1909 The Art of Letters Robert Lynd, 1921 Independent and Weekly Review ,1899 The Complete Works of Friedrich Nietzsche: The will to power, tr. by A.M. Ludovici Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche,1924 Leaders Who Lust Barbara Kellerman, Todd L. Pittinsky, 2020-10-29 Among our greatest leaders are those driven by impulses they cannot completely control by lust Lust is not however an abstraction it has definition Definition that given the impact of leaders who lust is essential to extract This book identifies six types of lust with which leaders are linked 1 Power the ceaseless craving to control 2 Money the limitless desire to accrue great wealth 3 Sex the constant hunt for sexual gratification 4 Success the unstoppable need to achieve 5 Legitimacy the tireless claim to identity and equity 6 Legacy the endless quest to leave a permanent imprint Each of the core chapters focuses on different lusts and features a cast of characters who bring lust to life In the real world leaders who lust can and often do have an enduring impact This book therefore is counterintuitive it focuses not on moderation but on immoderation From Poverty to Power James Allen,1907 Fighting Evil Haim Gordon,1997-02-28 This book argues that Greene s writings have much to teach us about fighting evil here and now and about endeavoring to live a worthy life Greene related stories of evil persons who destroyed the freedom of others and of a few simple people who fought them Through these stories he showed us three basic truths first evil exists second it is possible to fight it and third one may attain wisdom and sometimes a very limited glory by undertaking such a struggle College and Commonwealth John Henry MacCracken,1920 Christian Standard ,1908 Forbidden fruit, a series of sermons Thomas William Johnson Barker,1879 Ethics of Achievement Herbert Parsons Patterson,1927
