Brunstetter, Cian O'Driscoll, 2024-11-25 This book comprises essays that focus on a range of thinkers who challenge the boundaries of the just war tradition The ethics of war scholarship has become a rigid and highly disciplined activity closely associated with a very particular canon of thinkers This volume moves beyond this by presenting thinkers not typically regarded as part of that canon but who have interesting and potentially important things to say about the ethics of war The book presents 20 profile essays on an eclectic cast of heretics humanists and radicals from ancient Greece to the twenty first century who lived through and theorized about violence The book asks how ethics of war scholars might benefit from engaging with them Some of these thinkers engage directly with to augment or criticize the just war tradition while others contribute to military thinking across the ages pushing the boundaries of what was acceptable in war Many proffer alternative moral frameworks regarding the legitimacy of political violence The present volume thus invites scholars to reconsider the ethics of war in a way that challenges the standard delineation between just war theory realism and pacifism and to reflect on how those positions might inform our own approach to these matters This book will be of much interest to students of just war theory ethics of war war studies and International Relations Religion, War, and Ethics Gregory M. Reichberg, Henrik Syse, 2014-05-26 Religion War and Ethics is a collection of primary sources from the world's major religions on the ethics of war Each chapter brings together annotated texts scriptural theological ethical and legal from a variety of historical periods that reflect each tradition's response to perennial questions about the nature of war when if ever is recourse to arms morally justifiable What moral constraints should apply to military conduct Can a lasting earthly peace be achieved Are there sacred reasons for waging war and special rewards for those who do the fighting The religions covered include Sunni and Shiite Islam Judaism Roman Catholic Eastern Orthodox and Protestant Christianity Theravada Buddhism East Asian religious traditions Confucianism Shinto Japanese and Korean Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Each section is compiled by a specialist recognized within his or her respective religious tradition who has also written a commentary on the historical and textual context of the passages selected Theological Anthropology, 500 Years after Martin Luther

,2021-07-19 Theological Anthropology 500 years after Martin Luther gathers contributions on the theme of the human being and human existence from the perspectives of Orthodox and Protestant theology These two traditions still have much to learn from each another five hundred years after Martin Luther s Reformation Taking Martin Luther s thought as a point of reference and presenting Orthodox perspectives in connection with and in contradistinction to it this volume seeks to foster a dialogue on some of the key issues of theological anthropology such as human freedom sin faith the human as created in God s image and likeness and the ultimate horizon of human existence The present volume is one of the first attempts of this kind in contemporary ecumenical dialogue Devotion Constance M. Furey,Sarah Hammerschlag,Amy Hollywood,2021-12-10

What brings religious scholars Constance Furey Sarah Hammerschlag and Amy Hollywood together in Devotion is a shared conviction that reading helps us live with and through the unknown For them the nature of reading raises questions fundamental to how we think about our political futures and modes of human relation Each essay suggests different ways to characterize the object of devotion and the stance of the devout subject before it Furey writes about devotion in terms of vivification energy and artifice Hammerschlag in terms of commentary mimicry and fetishism and Hollywood in terms of anarchy antinomianism and atopia They are interested in literature not as providing models for ethical political or religious life but as creating the site in which the possible and the impossible transport the reader enabling new forms of thought habits of mind and modes of life Ranging from German theologian Martin Luther to French Jewish philosopher Sarah Kofman to American poet Susan Howe this volume is not just a reflection on forms of devotion it is also an enactment of devotion itself The Anabaptists and Contemporary Baptists Malcolm B. Yarnell,2013 Scholars and pastors Paige Patterson Rick Warren etc offer essays on sixteenth century Anabaptists Balthasar Hubmaier Leonhard Schiemer Hans Denck etc

Uncivil Disobedience David M. Gides, 2022-12-13 This book addresses the need for theological reflection on uncivil disobedience Existing scholarship in theology and politics mostly treats church state relations theoretically with studies in non violent resistance or civil disobedience or in other ways largely assuming traditional forms of governance and means of protest all while paying little to no attention to post modern political philosophies Recent eruptions of uncivil disobedience oftentimes involving violence like we have seen with Antifa Black Lives Matter protests the storming of the U S Capitol Building and in the actions of other right wing leftist and religious groups assume new ways of protesting and new forms of organizing or mobilizing Additionally these groups and their activities are often informed by post modern philosophies These new political dynamics present an opportunity for theologians to produce scholarship in response After establishing philosophical underpinnings related to uncivilly disobedient action the contributors cover traditional historical and theological responses to political unrest as a foundation for considering or evaluating attempts to address theologically present day manifestations of uncivil disobedience

Lutzer, 2016-05-03 The Riveting Story of the Reformation and Its Significance Today The Reformation unfolded in the cathedrals and town squares of Europe in Wittenberg Worms Rome Geneva and Zurich and it is a stirring story of courage and cowardice of betrayal and faith The story begins with the Catholic Church and its desperate need for reform The dramatic events that followed are traced from John Wycliffe in England to the burning of John Hus at the stake in Prague to the rampant sale of indulgences in the cities and towns of Germany to Martin Luther nailing the Ninety Five Theses to the door of the Castle Church in 1517 to John Calvin's reform of Geneva Erwin Lutzer captures the people places and big ideas that fueled the Reformation and explains its lasting influence on the church and Western Civilization

Transfiguring Luther Vitor Westhelle, 2017-02-23 Luther s theology has inspired many since 1517 when he nailed his ninety five theses to the door of the Castle Church It was the trigger for the Reformation a change in the very fabric of Christianity that is still studied extensively to this day Much of this work however has been conducted from either a European or North American perspective With Lutheranism becoming more and more common in the southern hemisphere new interpretations of Luther s theology are needed for these emergent and different contexts In Transfiguring Luther Vitor Westhelle offers a reading of Luther and his legacy that goes beyond the traditional geopolitics of Luther research exploring realities where the Reformer s reception and the latent promise of his theology receive unsuspected appraisal Westhelle provides both a revisitation of the past and an invitation to a new orientation By establishing a texture rather than a rigid actuality Westhelle allows the reader to reach their own conclusions about these seldom examined aspects of Luther s theology
