Lyrics for Re-Creation James Conlon,1997-01-01 In response to the explosion of modern scientific knowledge in our world Conlon argues that a profound reinvention of our lives our actions and our institutions is necessary so that we can enter into our true roles in this sacred universe He explores practical strategies in the work of education community organizing environment action psychology and cultural reinvention with this aim of invoking a new era of humanity one he calls the ecological age

The Call Craig R. Smith,Michael Hyde,2022-01-01 This book is a unique examination of the phenomenon of the call Characterizing the call as a rhetorical event the book identifies how speakers can use eloquence in the service of truth Authors Craig R Smith and Michael J Hyde offer the rare combination of a phenomenology of the call linked closely to eloquence and explore this linkage by examining the components of eloquence including examples of its misuse by George W Bush and Donald Trump The bulk of the text examines case studies of eloquence in the service of truth including epideictic forensic and deliberative eloquence with examples drawn from addresses by Barack Obama Daniel Webster Ronald Reagan Margaret Chase Smith Susan Collins and Mitt Romney The authors also examine the Epistles of St Paul the writings of St Augustine and the preaching of Jonathan Edwards Finally the book explores eloquence in filmic narratives and dialogic communication between artists and writers concluding with a study of the sublime and how it is evoked with awe using the work of Annie Dillard

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie,2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

The Sacred Impulse James Conlon,2000 Conlon is an up and coming member of a group of spiritual writers calling for a more earth centered ecologically balanced approach to religion and everyday life Conlon presents life as a three dimensional journey personal communal and cosmic universal He develops the notion that spirituality must be grounded in origins both local and global and that any damage people do to the earth damages not only themselves the community and spirituality but also those of future generations

Ponderings from the Precipice James Conlon,1998 Brief reflections containing a sound expansive spirituality we can integrate into daily living Each pondering inspires understanding and action that can heal our souls and the Earth and a soulwork section for concrete ways to further explore and transform
