

Orange Radio Station Sold Friday

Donald G. Heyne, President of Charlottesville Broadcasting Corporation, announced Friday that radio station WJMA had been sold to Archibald C. Harrison, jr. and Henry Bower subject to approval of the Federal Communications Commission. Mr. Harrison will operate the station and comes to Orange from Fredericksburg where he has been program director of WFVA for the past six years.

Harrison originally came from Richmond, and is married and has three children. Bower, Harrison's uncle, is chairman of the board of directors, Henry Bower Chemical Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia.

Harrison advised that no changes in personnel were contemplated and that the programming of WJMA would be directed towards Orange and the surrounding coverage area.

After approval by Federal Communications, which usually takes approximately three months, Claude F. White, manager of WJMA for the past two and a half years, will be associated with WENA in Charlottesville. The latter station owned the Orange branch during that time.
