Macauley's Life of Samuel Johnson Charles Lane Hanson,2015-11-21 AN INTRODUCTION TO MACAULAY 1800 1859 Before Thomas Babington Macauley was big enough to hold a large volume he used to lie on the rug by the open fire with his book on the floor and a piece of bread and butter in his hand Apparently the three year old boy was as fond of reading as of eating and even at this time he showed that he was no mere bookworm by sharing with the maid what he had learned from a volume as big as himself He never tired of telling the stories that he read and as he easily remembered the words of the book he rapidly acquired a somewhat astonishing vocabulary for a boy of his years One afternoon when the little fellow then aged four was visiting a servant spilled some hot coffee on his legs The hostess who was very sympathetic soon afterward asked how he was feeling He looked up in her face and replied Thank you madam the agony is abated It was at this same period of his infancy that he had a little plot of ground of his own marked out by a row of oyster shells which a maid one day threw away as rubbish He went straight to the drawing room where his mother was entertaining some visitors walked into the circle and said very solemnly Cursed be Sally for it is written Cursed is he that removeth his neighbor s landmark
