Redefining the Subject Charlotte Sturgess,2021-09-20 This volume takes up the challenge of Canadian women s writing in its diversity in order to examine the terms on which subjectivity in its social political and literary dimensions emerges as discourse Work from writers as diverse as Dionne Brand Hiromi Goto and Margaret Atwood among others are studied both in their specific dimensions and through the collective focus of cultural and textual revision which characterizes Canadian writing in the feminine Current theorizing on the postcolonial imaginary is brought to bear in the interests of forging or unpacking those links which tie the Self to culture As such Redefining the Subject sets out to discover the limits of the aesthetic in its encounter with the political the figures and designs which envisage textual reimaginings as statements of a contemporary Canadian reality
