his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit s presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha

Lying, Truthtelling, and Storytelling in Children's and Young Adult Literature Anita Tarr,2023-12-20 Even though we instruct our children not to lie the truth is that lying is a fundamental part of children s development socially cognitively emotionally morally Lying can sometimes be more compassionate than telling the truth even more ethical Reading specific children s books can instruct child readers how to be guided by an etiquette of lying to know when to tell the truth and when to lie Equally important these stories can help prevent them from being prey to those liars who are intent on taking advantage of them Becoming a critical reader requires that one learn how to lie judiciously as well as to see through others lies When humans first began to speak we began to lie When we began to lie we started telling stories This is the paradox that in order to tell truthful stories we must be good liars Novels about child artists showcased here illustrate how the protagonist embraces this paradox accepting the stigma that a writer is a liar who tells the truth Emily Dickinson s phrase tell it slant best expresses the vision of how writers for children and young adults negotiate the conundrum of both protecting child readers and teaching them to protect themselves This volume explores the pervasiveness of lying as well as the necessity for lying in our society the origins of lying as connected to language acquisition the realization that storytelling is both lying and truthtelling and the negotiations child artists must process in order to grasp the paradox that to become storytellers they must become expert liars and lie detectors
