exciting and unprecedented ways Alan Richardson demonstrates how developments in the neurosciences can transform the study of literary history Richardson presents six exemplary studies each exploring a different intersection of Romanticism and the sciences of the mind and brain the experience of the sublime and the neuroscience of illusion the Romantic imagination and visual imaging the figure of apostrophe and linguistic theory fictional representations of the mind and theory of mind theory depictions of sibling incest and neo Darwinian theories of mental behavior and representations of female speech and cognitive developmental psychology Richardson s insightful analysis opens fresh perspectives on British Romanticism pointing scholars to new developments in cognitive literary studies He combines elements of new historicist analysis with original and much needed models for understanding language subjectivity and social behavior Far from signaling a departure from the prevalent critical approaches of new historicism Richardson argues cognitive theory presents an essential complement to them The Neural Sublime features an array of cognitive and neuroscientific approaches providing an engaging and readable introduction to the emergent field of cognitive literary studies Peculiar Rhetoric Bjorn F. Stillion Southard, 2019-06-27 Winner of the 2020 Marie Hochmuth Nichols Award from the Public Address Division of the National Communication Association The African colonization movement occupies a troubling rhetorical territory in the struggle for racial equality in the United States For white colonizationists the movement seemed positioned as a welcome compromise between slavery and abolition For free blacks colonization offered the hope of freedom but not within America s borders Bjorn F. Stillion Southard indicates how politics and identity were negotiated amid the intense public debate on race slavery and freedom in America Operating from a position of power white advocates argued that colonization was worthy of massive support from the federal government Stillion Southard pores over the speeches of Henry Clay Elias B. Caldwell and Abraham Lincoln which engaged with colonization during its active deliberation Between Clay s and Caldwell s speeches at the founding of the American Colonization Society (ACS) in 1816 and Lincoln s final public effort to encourage colonization in 1862 Stillion Southard analyzes the little known speeches and writings of free blacks who wrestled with colonization s conditional promises of freedom He examines an array of discourses to probe the complex issues of identity confronting free blacks who attempted to meaningfully engage in colonization efforts From a peculiarly voiced Counter Memorial against the ACS to the letters of wealthy black merchant Louis Sheridan negotiating for his passage to Liberia to the civically minded orations of Hilary Teage in Liberia Stillion Southard brings to light the intricate rhetoric of blacks who addressed colonization to Africa Paintings and Sculpture in the Collection of the National Academy of Design: 1826-1925 David Bernard Dearing, National Academy of Design (U.S.), 2004 This is the first installment of a fully illustrated catalogue of the Academy s priceless collection of paintings and sculptures Corporate Patronage of Art and Architecture in the United States, Late 19th Century to the Present Monica E.
