Nightfall Buried Alive:

So You're Going to Paris! Clara Elizabeth Laughlin, 1926 The War Diary of the Master of Belhaven Ralph Gerard Alexander Hamilton, 1924 Inner Workings of an Insomniac Brianna Childres, 2014-06-13 A collection of short stories and poetry documenting the thoughts of an insomniac throughout the course of a single night War Diary Of The Master Of Belhaven 1914-1918 The Hon Ralph G. A. Hamilton (Master of Belhaven), 2014-08-15 Includes 29 maps The author of this diary is an artillery officer who served on the Western Front from 1 Sep 1915 till his death in action on 31st March 1918 and it is one of the best ranking alongside Old Soldiers Never Die and The Journal of Private Fraser Following two brief spells in 1914 1915 with the BEF during the first of which he was injured when his horse fell on him he arrived in France on 1st Sep 1915 as OC C Battery 108 Brigade RFA 24th Division and before the end of the month he was in the thick of it at Loos His description of the scene is graphic He writes about trying to get his guns forward on roads jammed with traffic trying to find the infantry brigade he was supposed to support floundering about in the dark under heavy shellfire in an enormous plain of clay having the consistency of vaseline devoid of any landmark or feature covered in shell holes Later he gives a vivid account of the German gas attack at Wulverghem on 30 April 1916 when a mixture of chlorine and phosgene was used causing 338 casualties in the division During Aug and Sep 1916 his division took part in the bitter fighting for Delville Wood and Guillemont and the diary entries for this period provide some of the most powerfully descriptive writing recorded in any memoirs He was in action at Messines in June 1917 and a month later at Third Ypres In Aug 1917 he was finally given command of a brigade 108th Brigade RFA still in the 24th Division When the Germans struck on 21st March 1918 Hamilton was on leave in the UK but he quickly managed to get back to his brigade which was in action near Rosieres a few miles east of Amiens On 31st March he was killed when a shell burst under his horse just as had happened in Oct 1914 on that occasion he got away with an injury this time there was no reprieve Print Ed Ypres 1914: Langemarck Jack Sheldon, Nigel Cave, 2014-04-30 These three Battleground Europe books on Ypres 1914 mark the centenary of the final major battle of the 1914 campaign on the Western Front Although fought over a relatively small area and short time span the fighting was even more than usually chaotic and the stakes were extremely high Authors Nigel Cave and Jack Sheldon combine their respective expertise to tell the story of the men British French Indian and German who fought over the unremarkable undulating ground that was to become firmly placed in British national conscience ever afterwards When in October 1914 the newly created German Fourth Army attacked west to seize crossings over the Yser prior to sweeping south in an attempt to surround the BEF two things prevented it To the north it was the efforts of the Belgian army reinforced by French troops coupled with controlled flooding of the polders but further south the truly heroic defence of Langemarck for three days by the BEF and then by the French army was of decisive importance The village stood as a bulwark against any further advance to the river or the town of Ypres Here the German regiments bled to death in the face of resolute Allied defence and any remaining hope of forcing a decision in the west turned to dust New Peterson Magazine Ann Sophia Stephens, Charles Jacobs Peterson, 1862 They Were There in 1914 William Langford, 2014-11-30 In September 1938 as Chamberlain was having discussions with Herr Hitler and managing to secure Peace in our Time a weekly magazine called I WAS THERE hit the newsagents and booksellers Twenty years had elapsed since the Great War ended and in that period hundreds of books on the subject had been written by those who took part It was from these published sources that extracts were taken from the personal stories of soldiers sailors and airmen who had experienced the war to end all wars first hand The magazine I WAS THERE proved popular with the public and came only came to an end as the Second World War broke out This rework in book form They Were There has allowed these stories of 1914 to be aired once more covering exciting accounts from Mons to the Christmas Truce 1914 and to the German naval bombardment of the East Coast of England in December of that year We are confident that many will agree these stories are well worth ressurecting and presenting in book form to readers of the 21st Century 100 years after they were first told Luchino Visconti and the Alchemy of Adaptation Brendan Hennessey, 2021-09-01 Since the beginning much of Italian cinema has been sustained by transforming literature into moving images This tradition of literary adaptation continues today challenging artistic form and practice by pressuring the boundaries that traditionally separate film from its sister arts In the twentieth century director Luchino Visconti is a keystone figure in Italy's evolving art of adaptation From the tumultuous years of Fascism and postwar Neorealism through the blockbuster decade of the 1960s into the arthouse masterpieces of the 1970s Visconti's adaptations marked a distinct pathway of the Italian cinematic imagination Luchino Visconti and the Alchemy of Adaptation examines these films together with their literary antecedents Moving past strict book to film comparisons it ponders how literary texts encounter and interact with a history of cultural and cinematic forms genres and traditions Matching the major critical concerns of the postwar period realism political filmmaking cinematic modernism with more recent notions of adaptation and intermediality this book reviews how one of Italy's greatest directors mined literary ore for cinematic inspiration Polly Hinchliffe, 2003-07-01 It all begins as an innocent adventure a challenge to explore the cellars of a row of terraced houses when three intrepid children known as the Trio Theo enter a connecting trap door situated in the walls of the basement Fantasy and mischief turn into an experience of fear and terror as the three find themselves confronting the horrors of the past through their efforts to release the ghost children alone and trapped for eternity by the evil power of the man in black Their first encounter with the supernatural is when they emerge from the cellars to the caves and hovels under the street and discover the wartime ghost orphans who warn the trio of the perils of the faraway land and its occupants The book is based on local myths rumours and history from North Wales Peterson's Magazine ,1862 New Peterson Magazine ,1862

Bound to Violence Yambo Ouologuem, 2023-09-26 This critical edition of the epic 1968 Malian novel explores its enduring literary power and the racist plagiarism scandal that devastated its author the first African winner of France's prestigious Renaudot Prize An engrossing tragic tale spanning the thirteenth to the twentieth century Bound to Violence recounts the fate of the imaginary empire of Nakem and the dynasty of the Sa fs who reign there as devious masters While the novel was initially praised as an insider s guide to and critique of African history with its vivid descriptions of the brutality of local rulers and the slave trade Yambo Ouologuem s biting satire goes far beyond his native land Through the society of Nakem he paints a universally relevant portrait of sex violence and power in human relationships In this new edition of Ralph Manheim s vigorous translation professor and award winning documentary filmmaker Ch rif Ke ta provides invaluable context for the novel whose publication in the West was mired by accusations of plagiarism fraught with racist undertones

Wenderholme Philip Gilbert Hamerton,2020-07-24 Reproduction of the original Wenderholme by Philip Gilbert Hamerton A View from Avalon Kendra Couch,2023-10-30 What would you do if you woke up in the center of a violent psychological experiment For Maxwell Hopper this question has become a matter of reality Living in the picturesque city of Avalon Max has become both the most renowned and notorious member of his society He lives a life of psychological warfare with his greatest enemy the mayor of the beautiful city Kellen Weathers Every year the battle of wits and violence intensifies and grows Soon it will reach a climax Could this be that year Or will things suddenly turn in an unexpected way

Rise of the Caretakers Ed Booth,2016-04-20 Father Jean came and stood next to Darby as he reclined and said I will be returning to the abbey I will pray for yer soul Darby and ask god what ye need to pay It could be quite a substantial sum as ye have lived a very sinful life Yes yesI know but it will be worth it to avoid the fiery flames For the first time and in a perplexed tone of voice Christian spoke to Father Jean You are not serious Making Darby pay for forgiveness a gift that is freely given With a look of incredulity Father Jean replied Darbys sins are great and the cost of penance must equally fit his crimes You heard him The next time he meets the Death Angel he will be taken to Hell and left there If he doesnt pay for his sins he has no hope of avoiding the fiery flames Shaking in anger Christian looked straight into the eyes of Darby OHerlihy and said Do not listen to this fool Darby To be a Christian is to believe that Jesus Christ came to this world to offer His life as a ransom for those who would believe and entrust their lives to Him His shed blood upon the cross is the payment for your sins It is not something we as men pay for monetarily If that be the case then the poor and needy are doomed to die and to be carried to the fiery pit to burn there forever separated from a loving and caring God It is written For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son John 3 16 KJV that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life In anger Father Jean responded Where are these written Words you speak of and who has them Are you the Caretaker of them If you are produce them so that we can see them for ourselves New Catholic World ,1879 Catholic World ,1879
