Innovations in Remote Healthcare Services Delivery A.J. Maeder, C. Higa, M.E.L. van den Berg, 2021-04-29 The need to promote academic activities in telehealth remains a high priority as the discipline expands into new areas of healthcare. Response during 2020 to the COVID 19 pandemic has provided an excellent example of the rapid diversification and impact attainable with telehealth and may kindle a new momentum for accelerated service design and adoption processes in the future. This book, Telehealth Innovations in Remote Healthcare Services Delivery, is the tenth in the Global Telehealth series. Due to the prevailing COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions placed on academic gatherings, the organizers issued a general call for contributions with the intention of attracting a wide cross section of contributions reflecting the breadth of different aspects of telehealth internationally. The resulting collection offers snapshots of research projects and studies of service experience from five continents with an emphasis on delivering benefits in regional settings in keeping with the theme of the book's title. Articles range from descriptions of telehealth networks and clinical service instances such as cardiac health, mental health, and pathology, several in Pacific rim settings, to more generic papers on the evolution of such services as well as commentaries on innovative considerations for telehealth such as the emergence of the concept of virtual care, the suitability of health apps, and the status of eHealth readiness in the developing world. This book is a valuable contribution to the body of knowledge on current telehealth research interests and trends and will be of interest to all those working in the field.

Writing for Bliss, 2017-09-01. Writing for Bliss is most fundamentally about reflection, truth, and freedom. With techniques and prompts for both the seasoned and novice writer, it will lead you to tap into your creativity through storytelling and poetry, examine how life-changing experiences can inspire writing, pursue self-examination and self-discovery through the written word, and understand how published writers have been transformed by writing. Poet and memoirist Diana Raab credits her lifelong love of writing and its therapeutic effects with inspiring her to write this thoughtful and detailed primer that targets pretty much anyone interested in writing a memoir. Most compelling here is Raab's willingness to share her intimate stories, e.g., the loss of a relative, ongoing struggles with cancer, a difficult relationship with her mother. Her revelations are encouraging to writers who feel they need permission to take a voyage of self-discovery. The book's seven-step plan includes plenty of guidance, including on learning to read like a writer and on addressing readers as if seated across the table. Raab covers big topics such as the art and power of storytelling and small details such as choosing pens and notebooks that you enjoy using. She also helps readers with the important step of finding your form. PUBLISHER'S WEEKLY. Writing for Bliss is about the profound ways in which we may be transformed in and through the act of writing. I am grateful to Diana Raab for sharing it, and I trust that you will feel the same as you read on. May you savor the journey from the foreword by MARK FREEMAN, PhD. By listening to ourselves and being aware of what we are saying and feeling, the true story of our life's past experience is revealed. Diana Raab's book gives us the insights by which we can achieve this through her life-coaching wisdom and our writing. BERNIE SIEGEL, MD, author of The Art of Healing. Only a talented writer who has fought hard to overcome life's many obstacles could take her readers by the hand and lead them through the writing process with such
