Recollections Of Old Times In California:

Frontier and Pioneer Recollections of Early Days in San Antonio and West Texas Vinton Lee James, 2025-02-07 Vinton Lee James 1858 1939 was the son of the Texas surveyor and pioneer John James 1819 1877 whose second wife was Annie Milby the daughter of William Polk Wilby 1809 1887 whose family has been so influential in the development of Houston The material presented in this book is the result of years of experience and effort to present phases of life in early San Antonio and West Texas to the present citizens Many of these articles have been written over a period of years and published in newspapers and magazines throughout the country The Mexican Frontier, 1821-1846 David J. Weber, 1982-06 Reinterprets borderlands history from the Mexican perspective Recollections of a Newspaperman Frank A. Leach, Though his career hit heights far beyond his work as a California journalist Frank Leach always thought of himself as a newspaperman Emigrating to the Golden State with his family as a boy he saw it grow into an important center of business and agriculture Along the way he became superintendent of the U S Mint in San Francisco During his tenure the devastating 1906 earthquake and subsequent fires destroyed much of the City by the Bay leaving the nation stunned Leach and his men saved the old San Francisco Mint building and the bullion that then backed the nation's currency Leach's description of the earthquake and the catastrophe that followed are by a newspaperman with a front row seat Later moving to the nation's capitol he met with President Teddy Roosevelt and President Taft For the first time this long out of print volume is available as an affordable well formatted book for e readers and smartphones Be sure to LOOK INSIDE by clicking the cover above or download a sample Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Thrown Among Strangers Douglas Monroy, 1990 Every California schoolchild's first interaction with history begins with the missions and Indians It is the pastoralist image of course and it is a lasting one Children in elementary school hear how Father Serra and the priests brought civilization to the groveling lizard and acorn eating Indians of such communities as Yang na now Los Angeles So edified by history many of those children drag their parents to as many missions as they can Then there is the other side of the missions one that a mural decorating a savings and loan office in the San Fernando Valley first showed to me as a child On it a kindly priest holds a large cross over a kneeling Indian For some reason though the padre apparently aims not to bless the Indian but rather to bludgeon him with the emblem of Christianity This portrait too clings to the memory capturing the critical view of the missionization of California's indigenous inhabitants I carried the two childhood images with me both when I went to libraries as I researched the missions and when I revisited several missions thirty years after those family trips In this work I proceed neither to debunk nor to reconcile these contrary notions of the missions and Indians but to present a new and I hope deeper understanding of the complex interaction of the two antithetical cultures
