Reconceptions Reading Modern French Poetry:

Reconceptions Russell King, Bernard McGuirk, 1996 Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France s foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation In the course of the century her role changed dramatically in the first fifty years two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power whilst the immediate post war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies Yet at the same time in the second half of the century France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation Throughout the century and into the new millennium France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation and its culture together with that of the Francophone world reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period This Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history language literature thought theatre architecture visual culture film and music and discuss the contributions of popular culture Francophone culture minorities and women Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry, 2022-12-28 Brill s Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry explores the relations between antiquity and modernity from the angle of the reception of Graeco Roman antiquity in modern world poetry In an innovative combination of the fields of Classical Reception and World Literature it tackles ever challenging questions which are central to both fields such as the questions of literature and identity specificity and universality Eurocentrism poetics and translation Leading experts from both Classics and Modern Languages contribute 11 chapters on modern poetry and poets from different linguistic and cultural traditions from around the world Trajectories of Mysticism in Theory and Literature P. Leonard, 2000-05-15 Trajectories of Mysticism in Theory and Literature is a collection of essays which considers how recent critical theory contributes to debates about mystical and negative theology This collection draws upon a wide range of material including Biblical texts autobiographical confessional and fictional writing from the sixteenth century to the twentieth century divinity in English German Spanish and French traditions as well as work on God and metaphysics by Schelling Weil Levinas Derrida de Ma Irigaray and Cixous André du Bouchet Emma

Wagstaff,2020-08-03 In André du Bouchet Poetic Forms of Attention Emma Wagstaff provides the first book length study in English of this major poet of the second half of the twentieth century She shows how Du Bouchet's rigorous and innovative creative and critical writing advances our understanding of attention Du Bouchet is known as a post war poet of the natural world and the space of the page Far from just a solitary writer however he engaged with others through his work as editor critic and translator and his involvement in the protests of May 1968 Emma Wagstaff shows how his writing demonstrates nuanced attention to language time nature and art and incites a slow response on the part of the reader Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris Maria C. Scott,2017-09-29 Maria Scott's study of the operation of irony in Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris contends that the principal target of the collection's spleen is its own readership Baudelaire as one of the most perceptive cultural commentators of the nineteenth century was naturally very keenly aware of the growing dominance of the bourgeoisie in France not least as a market for art and literature Despite being dependent on this market for his own writing the poet was highly critical of bourgeois values and attitudes Scott builds on existing criticism of the collection to argue that these are indirectly mocked in Le Spleen de Paris often in the person of the poet's supposed textual alter ego The contention is that the prose poems betray the trust of readers by way of an apparent transparency of meaning that functions to blind us to their embedded irony Though focused on Le Spleen de Paris Scott's study engages with the full range of Baudelaire's writings including his art and literary criticism Her book will be of interest not only to Baudelaire scholars but also to those engaged more generally with nineteenth century French culture A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens,2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women's writing in France from the sixth century to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers offering fascinating readings and perspectives The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women's writing which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women's activities in or their relation to the social political economic and cultural surroundings Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women

German Text Crimes Tom Cheesman,2013 German Text Crimes offers new perspectives on scandals and legal actions implicating writers of German literature since the 1950s Topics range from literary echoes of the Heidegger Affair to recent incitements to murder businessmen agents of American neo liberal power in works by Rolf Hochhuth and others GDR songwriters cat and mouse games with the Stasi feminist debates on pornography around works by Charlotte Roche and Elfriede Jelinek controversies over anti-Semitism around Bernhard Schlink's Der Vorleser The Reader and Martin Walser's lampooning of the Jewish critic Marcel Reich Ranicki Peter Handke's pro Serbian travelogue the disputed editing of Ingeborg

Bachmann's Nachla vexed relations between dramatists and directors abuses of privacy law to censor contemporary fiction these are among the cases of text crimes discussed Not all involve codified law but all test relations between state power civil society media industries and artistic license

The Language of Surrealism Peter Stockwell, 2016-10-14 The Language of Surrealism explores the revolutionary experiments in language and mind undertaken by the surrealists across Europe between the wars Highly influential on the development of art literary modernism and current popular culture surrealist style remains challenging striking resonant and thrilling and the techniques by which surrealist writing achieves this are set out clearly in this book Stockwell draws on recent work in cognitive poetics and literary linguistics to re-evaluate surrealism in its own historical setting In the process the book questions later critical theoretical views of language that have distorted our ideas about both surrealism and language itself What follows is a piece of literary criticism that is fully contextualised historically sensitive and textually driven and which sets out in rich and readable detail this most intriguing and disturbing literature

Boulez, Music and Philosophy Edward Campbell, 2010-08-19 In this book Campbell explores the relationships of music philosophy and intellectual culture in the work of Pierre Boulez

A Life of Picasso IV: The Minotaur Years John Richardson, 2021-11-16 The beautifully illustrated fourth volume of Picasso's life set in France and Spain during the Spanish Civil War and World War II covers friendships with the surrealist painters artistic inspiration around Guernica and the Minotaur and his muses Marie Thérèse Dora Maar and Françoise Gilot and much more Including 271 stunning illustrations and drawing on original and exhaustive research from interviews and never before seen material in the Picasso family archives this book opens with a visit by the Hungarian French photographer Brassa to Picasso's chateau in Normandy Boisgeloup where he would take his iconic photographs of the celebrated plaster busts of Marie Thérèse Picasso's mistress and muse Picasso was contributing to André Breton's Minotaur magazine and he was also spending more time with the likes of Man Ray Salvador Dalí Lee Miller and the poet Paul Éluard in Paris as well as in the south of France It was during this time that Picasso began writing surrealist poetry and became obsessed with the image of himself as the mythic Minotaur head of a bull body of a man and created his most famous etching Minotaure Richardsons shows us the artist is as prolific as ever painting Marie Thérèse but also painting the surrealist photographer Dora Maar who has become a muse a collaborator and more In April 1937 the bombing of the town of Guernica during the Spanish Civil War inspires Picasso's vast masterwork of the same name which he paints in just a few weeks for the Spanish Pavilion at the Paris World's Fair When the Nazis occupy Paris in 1940 Picasso chooses to remain in the city despite the threat that his art would be confiscated In 1943 Picasso meets Françoise Gilot who would replace Dora and as Richardson writes rejuvenate his psyche reawaken his imagery and inspire a brilliant sequence of paintings As always Richardson tells Picasso's story through his work during this period analyzing how it shows what the artist was feeling and thinking His fascinating and accessible narrative immerses us in one of the most exciting moments in twentieth century cultural history and brings to a close the definitive and critically acclaimed account of one of the world's most celebrated artists

Poetics and the Gift

Adam R. Rosenthal, 2022 Using a broad comparative approach this study shows how the figure of the gift structures poetic discourse and does so from the age of Homer up through twenty first century conceptual poetics Beginning from a new interpretation of Derrida's writings on the gift Adam R Rosenthal argues that this ambivalent figure names at one and the same time poetry's most extreme aneconomic privilege and the point of its closest contact with the interested exchange of the market In this way the gift conducts material relays of patronage and theories of poetic origination in genius inspiration and imagination Poetics and the Gift capitalizes on this double function in order to read material historical accounts of poetry alongside philosophical and poetic ones By way of his original reading of Derrida's work in Given Time and Economimesis Rosenthal offers a novel account of gift poetics and a new understanding of what makes poetry poetry

Farewell to the Muse: Love, War and the Women of Surrealism

Whitney Chadwick, 2017-11-14 A fascinating examination of the ambitions and friendships of a talented group of midcentury women artists Farewell to the Muse documents what it meant to be young ambitious and female in the context of an avant garde movement defined by celebrated men whose backgrounds were often quite different from those of their younger lovers and companions Focusing on the 1930s 1940s and 1950s Whitney Chadwick charts five female friendships among the Surrealists to show how Surrealism female friendship and the experiences of war loss and trauma shaped individual women's transitions from someone else's muse to mature artists in their own right Her vivid account includes the fascinating story of Claude Cahun and Suzanne Malherbe in occupied Jersey as well as the experiences of Lee Miller and Valentine Penrose at the front line Chadwick draws on personal correspondence between women including the extraordinary letters between Leonora Carrington and Leonor Fini during the months following the arrest and imprisonment of Carrington's lover Max Ernst and the letter Frida Kahlo shared with her friend and lover Jacqueline Lamba years after it was written in the late 1930s This history brings a new perspective to the political context of Surrealism as well as fresh insights on the vital importance of female friendship to its progress Primordial Modernism Cathryn Setz, 2019-08-05 Brings ideas and animals together to shed new light on modernist magazine culture Tests the concept of primordial modernism as a tributary of primitivism Jungian thought and fraught nationalisms Provides readings of Eugene Jolas's creative and critical works that place him centre stage in modernist studies Moves between unpublished archival material reception studies and readings of overlooked authors Considers a wide range of modernist authors and artists as befitting to such a rich document Touches on contemporary scientific discourse as an aspect of animal studies This adventurous study focuses on experimental animal writing in the major interwar journal transition 1927-1938 which contains a striking recurrence of metaphors around the most basic forms of life Amoebas fish lizards birds some of the lowest and oldest creatures on earth often emerge at the very places authors seek expressions for the newest and the highest in art Discussing works by James Joyce Henry Miller Gottfried Benn Eugene Jolas Kay Boyle Bryher Paul Irujo and more Cathryn Setz investigates this paradox and provides a new understanding of transition's contribution to twentieth century periodical culture Dolls, Photography and the Late Lacan Rosalinda Quintieri, 2020-12-30 In this fascinating new book Rosalinda Quintieri addresses some of the key questions of visual theory concerning our unending fascination with simulacra by evaluating the recent return of the life size doll in European and American visual culture Through a focus on the contemporary photographic and cinematic forms of this figure and a critical mobilisation of its anthropological complexity this book offers a new critical understanding of this classical aesthetic motif as a way to explore the relevance that doubling fantasy and simulation hold in our contemporary culture Quintieri explores the figure of the inanimate human double as an inhuman partner reflecting on contemporary visuality as the field of a hypermodern post-Oedipal aesthetic Through a series of case studies that blur traditional boundaries between practices photography performance sculpture painting documentary and between genres comedy drama fairy tale Quintieri puts in contrast the new function of the double and its plays of simulations on the background of the capitalist injunction to enjoy Engaging with new theories on post-Oedipal forms of subjectivity developed within the Lacanian orientation of psychoanalysis Quintieri offers exciting analyses of still and moving photographic work giving body to an original aesthetic model that promises to revitalise our understanding of contemporary photography and visual culture It will appeal to psychoanalysts and researchers from Lacanian psychoanalysis visual studies and cultural theory as well as readers with an academic interest in the cultural history of dolls and the theory of the uncanny

Shapeshifter Alice Paalen Rahon, 2021-09-14 Poetry by one of the most powerful female figures in twentieth century surrealism now collected in English for the very first time Alice Paalen Rahon was a shapeshifter a surrealist poet turned painter who was born French and died a naturalized citizen of Mexico Her first husband was the artist Wolfgang Paalen among her lovers were Pablo Picasso and the poet Valentine Penrose and over the years her circle of friends included Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera Joan Mir Paul luard Man Ray and Ana s Nin This bilingual edition of Rahon s poems confirms the achievement of this little known but visionary writer who defies categorization Her spellbinding poems inspired by prehistoric art lost love and travels around the globe weave together dream fantasy and madness For the first time in any language this book gathers the three collections of poetry Rahon published in her lifetime along with uncollected and unpublished poems and an album of portraits manuscript pages and artworks The Realist Author and Sympathetic Imagination Sotirios Paraschas, 2017-12-02 The nineteenth century realist author was a contradictory figure He was the focus of literary criticism but obscured his creative role by insisting on presenting his works as copies of reality He was a celebrity who found himself subservient to publishers and the public in a newly industrialised literary marketplace He was the owner of his work who was divested of his property by imperfect copyright laws playwrights who adapted his novels for the stage and sequel writers This combination of a conspicuous yet precarious status with a self effacing attitude was expressed by an image of the author as a plural Protean subject possessing the faculty of sympathetic imagination which the realists incorporated in their works in the form of a series of fictional characters who functioned as doubles of the author Paraschas focuses on two realists Honorede Balzac and George Eliot and traces this authorial scenario from its origins in the late eighteenth century to its demise in the early twentieth century examining its presence in the works of E T A Hoffmann Friedrich Schlegel Charles Baudelaire and Andre Gide Crisis Sascha Bru, Kate Kangaslahti, Li Lin, Iveta Slavkova, David Ayers, 2022-09-06 Notions of crisis have long charged the study of the European avant garde and modernism reflecting the often turbulent nature of their development Throughout their history the avant garde and modernists have both confronted and instigated crises be they economic or political aesthetic or philosophical collective or individual local or global short or perennial The seventh volume in the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies addresses the myriad ways in which the avant garde and modernism have responded and related to crisis from the late nineteenth to the twenty first century How have Europe s avant garde and modernist movements given aesthetic shape to their crisis laden trajectory Given the many different watershed moments the avant garde and modernism have faced over the centuries what common threads link the critical points of their development Alternatively what kinds of crises have their experimental practices and critical modes yielded The volume assembles case studies reflecting upon these questions and more from across all areas of avant garde and modernist activity including visual art literature music architecture photography theatre performance curatorial practice fashion and design
