Times Square Roulette Lynne B. Sagalyn, 2003-08-29 The compelling story of the politics policies and personalities that made Times Square's revitalization possible The spectacularly successful transformation of Times Square has become a model for other cities From its beginning as Longacre Square Times Square's commercialism signage cultural diversity and social tolerance have been deeply embedded in New York City's psyche Its symbolic role guaranteed that any plan for its renewal would push the hot buttons of public controversy free speech property taking through eminent domain development density tax subsidy and historic preservation In Times Square Roulette Lynne Sagalyn debunks the myth of an overnight urban miracle performed by Disney and Mayor Giuliani to tell the far more complex and commanding tale of a twenty year process of public controversy nonstop litigation and interminable delay She tells how the troubled execution of the original redevelopment plan provided a rare opportunity to rescript it And timing was all the mid 1990s saw rising international corporate interest in the city was a mecca for mass market entertainment and synergistic merchandising Sagalyn details the complex relationship between planning and politics and the role of market forces in shaping Times Square's redevelopment opportunities She shows how policy was wedded to deal making and how persistent individuals and groups forged both

Sensing Cities Monica Montserrat

Degen, 2008 As cities globally re design their urban landscapes they produce a different urban aesthetic and create new experiential milieus Urban regeneration processes generate radical physical social and cultural changes in neighbourhoods that demand new conceptual frameworks to address their impact upon daily urban life Sensing Cities investigates the reconfiguration of contemporary public space and life through the prism of the senses The book explores how the increased stylization of cityscapes requires an understanding of public life as a spatial sensuous encounter Degen examines how power relations in public spaces are embedded in exercised and resisted through the sensuous geography of place This sensory paradigm is then applied to compare two emblematic regeneration projects namely el Raval in Barcelona and Castlefield in Manchester By combining detailed ethnographic analysis and interviews with those involved in planning regeneration processes and those experiencing them the book argues that a changing sensuous landscape is crucial in redefining people s social practices attachments and experiences in places Focusing on two European cities at the forefront of urban design Barcelona and Manchester Degen draws on sociology geography anthropology cultural and architectural studies to provide a
