Recovering A Public Vision For Public Television:

Recovering a Public Vision for Public Television Glenda R. Balas, 2003 In 1995 US public television faced possible elimination of federal funding potentially commercialising this type of broadcasting This study suggests that these strains have undermined public broadcasting historically the result is that programming no longer prioritises social reform

Internet Governance in Transition Daniel J. Paré, 2003 All Internet users will find this book a useful tool for understanding the increasingly complex web of Internet control

Principles of Publicity and Press Freedom Slavko Splichal, 2002 This insightful book examines how the original concept of publicity has been reduced to mean the right of media to access and print information Visit our website for sample chapters

Gendered Media Karen Ross, 2013-02-20 Gendered Media addresses the broad topic of gender and media where gender is not simply a shorthand for woman but also embraces masculinity ies queer lesbian and gay identities Karen Ross provides the necessary historical context against which to read recent sex and gender based media phenomena such as Big Brother Terminator girls use of mobile phones women news editors the Wonderbra generation the Hillary Clinton and Sarah Palin phenomena and so on The book is an overview of the various aspects of gender and media in one volume The book provides introductory overviews to the various themes around women men sexuality and the ways in which these attributes are cross cut by other demographics such as age ethnicity and disability In this way the book genuinely tries to provide a broad introduction to the ways in which gender in all its facets engages with media in one accessible volume

Digital Disability Gerard Goggin, Christopher Newell, 2003 Media representation of and for the disabled has been recharged in recent years with the expansion of new media worldwide Interactive digital communications such as the Interact new varieties of voice and text telephones and digital broadcasting have created a need for a more innovative understanding of new media and disability issues This engaging analysis offers a global perspective on how people with disabilities are represented as users consumers viewers or listeners of new media by policymakers corporations programmers and the disabled themselves

Herbert Schiller Richard Maxwell, 2003 Herbert I Schiller 1919 2000 has been called America s most original and influential media analyst of the left in the twentieth century Maxwell s timely book fuses biography and history in a digest of Schiller s major works to reveal their continuing relevance for critical communication studies Visit our website for sample chapters

Many Voices, One World International Commission for the Study of Communication Problems, 2004 Originally published in 1980 and now back in print Many Voices One World came out of hundreds of international studies and proposed reforms for global communication media to ensure a free flow of information Prepared by the distinguished MacBride Commission and frequently referred to as the MacBride Report it criticized corporate control of media flows and suggested ways to make media production accessible in poorer countries Beginning with the right of individuals and nations to communicate this report tackled problems related to government controls censorship one way flows of information cultural dominance and commercialization of the mass media It called for more voices more freedom of expression and the protection of journalists rights Still widely taught and cited the MacBride Report is a key work in the history of communication that continues to be relevant today Toward a Political Economy of Culture Andrew Calabrese, Colin Sparks, 2003-11-22 Several of the most important and influential political economists of communication working today explore a rich mix of topics and issues that link work policy studies and research and theory about the public sphere to the heritage of political economy Familiar but still exceedingly important topics in critical political economy studies are well represented here market structures and media concentration regulation and policy technological impacts on particular media sectors information poverty and media access The book also features new topics for political economy study including racism in audience research the value and need for feminist approaches to political economy studies and the relationship between the discourse of media finance and the behavior of markets Changing Concepts of Time Harold A. Innis, 2004-02-10 This classic book Harold Innis s last returns to print with a new introduction by James Carey An elaboration of Innis s earlier theories Changing Concepts of Time looks at then new technological changes in communication and considers the different ways in which space and time are perceived Innis explores military implications of the U S constitution freedom of the press communication monopolies culture and press support of presidential candidates among other interesting and diverse topics Turning the Page David R. Coon, 2018-07-11 First runner up for the 2019 John Leo and Dana Heller Award from the Popular Culture Association Surprisingly Hollywood is still clumsily grappling with its representation of sexual minorities and LGBTQ filmmakers struggle to find a place in the mainstream movie industry However organizations outside the mainstream are making a difference helping to produce and distribute authentic stories that are both by and for LGBTQ people Turning the Page introduces readers to three nonprofit organizations that in very different ways have each positively transformed the queer media landscape David R Coon takes readers inside In the Life Media whose groundbreaking documentaries on the LGBTQ experience aired for over twenty years on public television stations nationwide Coon reveals the successes of POWER UP a nonprofit production company dedicated to mentoring filmmakers who can turn queer stories into fully realized features and short films Finally he turns to Three Dollar Bill Cinema an organization whose film festivals help queer media find an audience and whose filmmaking camps for LGBTQ youth are nurturing the next generation of queer cinema Combining a close analysis of specific films and video programs with extensive interviews of industry professionals Turning the Page demonstrates how queer storytelling in visual media has the potential to empower individuals strengthen communities and motivate social justice activism Newsworkers Unite Catherine McKercher, 2002 Over the last forty years new technology and rapid concentration of ownership have caused fundamental changes in North American newspapers Newsworkers unions have struggled to protect their members and to reinvent themselves to keep up with the relentless pace of change in the workplace and recent strikes such as that of Seattle newspaper workers highlight the ongoing challenges This engaging and accessible book focuses on how the Newspaper

Guild the main union for reporters and editors adopted a strategy of labor convergence joining with other media workers in the large and diverse Communications Workers of America union McKercher also looks at the nationalism of Canadian newswriters who instead joined an all Canadian union similar to CWA and explores a case study on an extreme form of labor convergence in Vancouver She concludes that while labor convergence is a work in progress it is a promising development for newswriters and their unions helping them adjust to change and perhaps expand into new areas of the communication sector

Contesting Media Power Nick Couldry, James Curran, 2003 Contesting Media Power is the most ambitious international collection to date on the worldwide growth of alternative media that are challenging the power concentration in large media corporations Media scholars and political scientists develop a broad comparative framework for analyzing alternative media in Australia Chile China Indonesia Malaysia Russia Sweden South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Topics include independent media centers gay online networks and alternative web discussion forums feminist film political journalism and social networks indigenous communication and church sponsored media This important book will help shape debates on the media's role in current global struggles such as the anti globalization movement

Harold Innis Paul Heyer, 2003 His name may not be as well known as that of his colleague and spiritual descendent Marshall McLuhan but Harold Innis's 1894-1952 influence on contemporary critical media and communication studies has been no less profound This concise look at Innis's life and contributions to the communication field charts his beginnings in political economy to his later work in critical media studies and communications history synthesizing his key publications and clearly showing their ongoing resonance for the field today The book also includes an appendix by William J Buxton on the History of Communications manuscript and one by J David Black on the contributions of Mary Quayle Innis

Routledge Handbook of Media Law Monroe E. Price, Stefaan G. Verhulst, Libby Morgan, 2013 Featuring specially commissioned chapters from experts in the field of media and communications law this book provides an authoritative survey of media law from a comparative perspective The handbook does not simply offer a synopsis of the state of affairs in media law jurisprudence rather it provides a better understanding of the forces that generate media rules norms and standards against the background of major transformations in the way information is mediated as a result of democratization economic development cultural change globalization and technological innovation The book addresses a range of issues including Media Law and Evolving Concepts of Democracy Network neutrality and traffic management Public Service Broadcasting in Europe Interception of Communication and Surveillance in Russia State secrets leaks and the media A variety of rule making institutions are considered including administrative and judicial entities within and outside government but also entities such as associations and corporations that generate binding rules The book assesses the emerging role of supranational economic and political groupings as well as non Western models such as China and India where cultural attitudes toward media freedoms are often very different Monroe E Price is Director of the Center for Global Communication Studies at the Annenberg School for the
