Recueil De Textes Relatifs A L'histoire De L'architecture Et A La Condition:

Recueil de textes relatifs à l'histoire de l'architecture et à la condition des architectes en France, au Moyen Age, XIe-XIIe siècles, 1929 Disciplined Exuberance Linda Elaine Neagley, 2010-11-01 Recueil de textes relatifs à l'histoire de l'architecture et à la condition des architectes en France Victor Mortet, Paul Deschamps, 1929 Recueil de textes relatifs a l'histoire de l'architecture et a la condition des architectes en France Victor Mortet, 2010 Carolingian and Romanesque Architecture, 800 to 1200 Kenneth John Conant, 1993-01-01 Professor Conant's detailed studies of Santiago de Compostela and of the abbey church at Cluny fit him for this account of building in the period of the round arch which preceded Gothic. In this volume he shows how at the instigation of the monasteries during the little renaissance of Charlemagne Roman methods of construction were revived and fused with local traditions to produce a distinctive Carolingian manner and how such monuments as the Palatine Chapel at Aachen already contained hints of the nobler and more mature Romanesque style which was to become international. Professor Conant extends his survey to cover the regions of medieval France, Spain, Portugal, the Holy Land, Italy, Germany, Northern Europe and Britain. French Gothic Architecture of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries Jean Bony, 2023-11-15 Gothic architecture is the most visible and striking product of medieval European civilization. Jean Bony, whose reputation as a medievalist is worldwide, presents its development as an adventure of the imagination allied with radical technical advances, the result of a continuing quest for new ways of handling space and light as well as experimenting with the mechanics of stone construction. He shows how the new architecture came unexpectedly to be invented in the Paris region around 1140 and follows its history in the great cathedrals of northern France and dozens of other key buildings to the end of the thirteenth century when profound changes occurred in the whole fabric of medieval civilization. Rich illustrations, including comprehensive maps, enhance the text and themselves constitute an exceptionally valuable documentation. Despite its evident scholarly intention, this book is not meant for specialists alone but is conceived as a progressive infiltration into the complexities of history at work, revealing its unpredictable vitality to the uninitiated, curious mind. Recueil de Textes Relatifs a L'histoire de L'architecture Et a la Condition Des Architectes en France, 2011 Text Arthur Kingsley Porter, 1923 Romanesque Sculpture of the Pilgrimage Roads Arthur Kingsley Porter, 1923 A Companion to Medieval Art Conrad Rudolph, 2019-02-08 A fully updated and comprehensive companion to Romanesque and Gothic art history. This definitive reference brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe and provides a clear analytical survey of what is happening in this major area of Western art history.
