emphasized However since the democratization of the political landscape in Taiwan Taiwanese cinema has become internationally fluid As the case studies in this book demonstrate filmmakers such as Hou Hsiao hsien Edward Yang Tsai Ming liang and Ang Lee each engage with international audience expectations New Taiwanese Cinema in Focus therefore presents the Taiwanese New Wave and Second Wave movements with an emphasis on intertextuality citation and trans cultural dialogue Wilson argues that the cinema of Taiwan since the 1980s should be read emblematically that is as a representation of the greater paradox that exists in national and transnational cinema studies She argues that these unlikely relationships create the need for a new way of thinking about transnationalism altogether making this an essential read for advanced students and scholars in both Film Studies and Asian Studies
