Rediscovering Magical Realism In The Americas:

Rediscovering Magical Realism in the Americas Shannin Schroeder, 2004-10-30 Drawing from a variety of contemporary literature including such works as One Hundred Years of Solitude, Beloved and Like Water for Chocolate Schroeder explores magical realism as one of many common denominators in the literature of the Americas challenging the notion that magical realism should be defined merely in terms of geography or Latin American history By relying on an all encompassing vision of this unique mode of writing the author argues that the Americas share a literary tradition and validates the North American strain of the mode In addition she points to fundamentally similar approaches to fiction that illustrate the ways in which the Americas share a common literature and calls for increased Pan American scholarship Counteracting the critical tendency to label anything unreal or supernatural in literature as magical realism Schroeder traces the mode through a variety of contemporary works including well known and lesser known examples Through a carefully articulated history and description of the mode itself she is able to show that while Latin American and North American fiction share in common certain features of magical realism their distinctive approaches to it reflect Latin America's third world concerns and North America's preoccupation with popular culture and capitalism Tracing the forces of change at work on the mode in an effort to counter the tendency among scholars to apply the label without justification this book reclaims magical realism as a current and significant term for use in its application to literary works Moments of Magical

Realism in US Ethnic Literatures Lyn Di Iorio Sandín, R. Magical Realism and Deleuze Eva Aldea, 2011-02-10 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre Magical Realism and Literature Christopher Warnes, Kim Anderson Sasser, 2020-11-12 Magical realism can lay claim to being one of most recognizable genres of prose writing It mingles the probable and improbable the real and the fantastic and it provided the late twentieth century novel with an infusion of creative energy in Latin America Africa Asia and beyond Writers such as Alejo Carpentier Gabriel Garc a M rquez Isabel Allende Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and many others harnessed the resources of narrative realism to the representation of folklore belief and fantasy This book sheds new light on magical realism exploring in detail its global origins and development It offers new perspectives of the history of the ideas behind this literary tradition including magic realism otherness primitivism ethnography indigeneity and space and time

Magical Realism and the Postcolonial Novel Christopher Warnes,2009-03-19 This book rethinks the origins and nature of magical realism and provides detailed readings of key novels by Asturias Carpentier Garc a M rquez Rushdie and Okri Identifying two different strands of the mode one characterized by faith the other by irreverence Warnes makes available a new vocabulary for the discussion of magical realism

Magical Realism in Postcolonial British Fiction Taner Can,2014-06-01 This study aims at delineating the cultural work of magical realism as a dominant narrative mode in postcolonial British fiction through a detailed analysis of four magical realist novels Salman Rushdie s Midnight s Children 1981 Shashi Tharoor s The Great Indian Novel 1989 Ben Okri s The Famished Road 1991 and Syl Cheney Coker s The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar 1990 The main focus of attention lies on the ways in which the novelists in question have exploited the potentials of magical realism to represent their hybrid cultural and national identities To provide the necessary historical context for the discussion the author first traces the development of magical realism from its origins in European Painting to its appropriation into literature by European and Latin American writers and explores the contested definitions of magical realism and the critical questions surrounding them He then proceeds to analyze the relationship between the paradigmatic turn that took place in postcolonial literatures in the 1980s and the concomitant rise of magical realism as the literary expression of Third World countries

Traumatic Experience and Repressed Memory in Magical Realist Novels Md Abu Shahid Abdullah,2020-03-02 This book explores the close association between the literary representation of historical trauma and the alternative narrative form of magical realism underscoring the role of memory empathy and imagination It discusses the potential of magical realism to give a literary representation to individual and collective trauma arising from the Holocaust slavery and apartheid and to turn those unspoken memories into narratives It also analyses the role of magical realism in depicting trauma suffered by female victims during and following those events Again by dealing with the above mentioned events their specific historical context and universal meaning for humankind this book highlights a universal experience of trauma Magic Realist Cinema in East Central Europe Aga Skrodzka, 2014-02-11 Magic Realist Cinema is the first book length critical analysis of magic realism in cinema The Gothic and Twenty-First-Century American Popular Culture , 2024-05-13 The Gothic and Twenty First Century American Popular Culture examines the gothic mode deployed in a variety of texts that touch upon inherently US American themes demonstrating its versatility and ubiquity across genres and popular media The volume is divided into four main thematic sections spanning representations related to ethnic minorities bodily monstrosity environmental anxieties and haunted technology The chapters explore both overtly gothic texts and pop culture artifacts that despite not being widely considered strictly so rely on gothic strategies and narrative devices Isabel Allende Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2013-03-26 Isabel Allende la Famosa to her fellow Chileans is the world s most widely read Spanish language author Her career coincides with the emergence of multiculturalism and global feminism and her powerfully honest revelatory works touch the pulse points of humankind Her bravura study of the interwoven roles of women in family history opens the minds of outsiders to the sufferings of women and their children during years of social and political nightmare This reference work provides an introduction to Allende s life as well as a guided overview of her body of work Designed for the fan and scholar alike this text features an alphabetized fully annotated listing of major terms in the Allende canon including fictional characters motifs historical events and themes A comprehensive index is included Moving Forward, Looking Back Sarah M. Misemer, 2010 Many critical shifts in concepts of time and society s consciousness of modernity were derived from the railway and World Standard Time in the nineteenth century These innovations restructured the way people viewed the world and dealt with public and private time The forward projectile motion along a linear track mimicked the passage of public chronological time Conversely the train also invoked a private nostalgic view of time as the traveler was yanked from his her traditional view of the space time continuum via the train s velocity Travelers observed the landscape disappear in their backward glance from the window although the landscape and interior compartment s space remained stagnant This optical illusion caused passengers to perceive the world in new ways Thus the train unveils a conflictive blend of nostalgia and progress in the River Plate as these countries move forward but look back Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken, 2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot's Savage slot The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships
