Reference Grammar Of Modern Hebrew:

A Reference Grammar of Modern Hebrew Edna Amir Coffin, Shmuel Bolozky, 2005-02-03 A Reference Grammar of Modern Hebrew provides a clearly structured and accessible guide to all aspects of contemporary Hebrew grammar. Systematically organised, it presents the basic structures of the language, looking at grammatical categories, phrases, expressions, and the construction of clauses and sentences. Specialised linguistic terminology is kept to a minimum, and verb and noun tables are provided, as well as a comprehensive index of terms, making this both a useful teaching resource and an easy-to-use reference tool for those wishing to look up specific details of the language.

and diachrony theoretically or empirically oriented Typology of Pluractional Constructions in the Languages of the World Simone Mattiola, 2019-04-24 The aim of this book is to give the first large scale typological investigation of pluractionality in the languages of the world Pluractionality is defined as the morphological modification of the verb to express a plurality of situations that can additionally involve a plurality of participants and or spaces Based on a 246 language sample the main characteristics of pluractionality are described and discussed throughout the book Firstly a description of the functions that pluractional markers cross linguistically express is presented and the relationships occurring among them are explained through the semantic map model Then the marking strategies that languages display to express such functions are illustrated and some issues concerning the formal identification are briefly discussed as well The typological generalizations are corroborated showing how pluractional markers work in three specific languages Akawaio Beja Maa In conclusion the theoretical conceptualization of pluractionality is discussed referring to the Radical Construction Grammar approach

Learn Hebrew - Level 1: Introduction to Hebrew Innovative Language Learning, HebrewPod101.com, Language Development Program United States. Office of Education, 1960 Contemporary Israel Frederick E. Greenspahn, 2016-08-09 For a country smaller than Vermont with roughly the same population as Honduras modern Israel receives a remarkable amount of attention For supporters it is a unique bastion of democracy in the Middle East while detractors view it as a racist outpost of Western colonialism The romanticization of Israel became particularly prominent in 1967 when its military prowess shocked a Jewish world still reeling from the sense of powerlessness dramatized by the Holocaust That imagery has grown ever more visible with Israel's supporters idealizing its technological achievements and its opponents attributing almost every problem in the region if not beyond to its imperialistic aspirations The contradictions and competing views of modern Israel are the subject of this book There is much to consider about modern Israel besides the Middle East conflict Over the past generation a substantial body of scholarship has explored numerous aspects of the country including its approaches to citizenship and immigration the arts the women's movement religious fundamentalism and language but much of that work has to date been confined within the walls of the academy This book does not seek not to resolve either the country's internal debates or its struggle with the Arab world but to present a sample of contemporary scholars discoveries and discussions about modern Israel in an accessible way In each of the areas discussed competing narratives grapple for prominence and it is these which are highlighted in this volume Describing Morphosyntax Thomas E. Payne, 1997-10-09 Of the 6000 languages now spoken throughout the world around 3000 may become extinct during the next century This guide gives linguists the tools to describe them syntactically and grammatically for future reference

Time: Language, Cognition & Reality Kasia M. Jaszczolt, Louis de Saussure, 2013-05-02 This book considers linguistic and mental representations of time Prominent linguists and philosophers from all over the world examine and report on recent work on the representation of temporal reference the interaction of the temporal information from tense aspect modality temporal adverbials and context and the representation of the temporal relations between events and states as well as between facts propositions sentences and utterances They link this to current research on the cognitive processing of temporal reference linguistic and philosophical semantics psychology and anthropology The book is divided into three parts Time Tense and Temporal Reference in Discourse Time and Modality and Cognition and Metaphysics of Time It will interest scholars and advanced students of time and temporal reference in linguistics philosophy anthropology psychology and cognitive science
