Spirit and Word Timothy Wiarda, 2016-12-15 A number of New Testament passages depict the Holy Spirit acting in conjunction with gospel preaching or other forms of humanly given communication about Jesus yet there is considerable disagreement about how these passages should be interpreted Unresolved exegetical debates about the correlative action the dual testimony of the Spirit and the humanly conveyed word plague the interpretation of whole writings extended sections of individual works and important themes This book examines this contested motif in a focused and comprehensive way It begins by taking the Pauline Johannine and Lucan writings in turn subjecting the central texts that express dual testimony to detailed exegetical analysis On the basis of this exegetical work it then moves to a big picture analysis of the way each corpus expresses and uses the dual testimony motif identifying individual emphases and tendencies as well as shared elements that can be observed across the three bodies of writing Two final chapters offer brief reflections on possible developmental scenarios and points at which the preceding exegetical findings may impinge on questions of contemporary theology      Pisteuo! Laird, 2022-06-16 This text considers the call that exists within scripture for believers individually and corporately as the Church to shine and reflect the glory of the Lord in the areas where He has planted them As we investigate this call we see that there is not only an onus on believers and churches to shine but there is also a process laid out in scripture for how this occurs The Lord not only calls us to shine He shows us how to fulfill this call Through examining this process we learn not only how we reflect His glory and shine but also what is seen when we do and ultimately what happens to the world around us when we reflect the glory of the Lord brightly It is the writer s belief that we are in a time when the Lord is stirring His people and His Church to shine as brightly as they have been called to There is a call of the Lord unto His people in this day It is Revivals Call The Lord is calling His people to a new depth of relationship one where we will reflect His glory as brightly as we have been called to If we will respond to this call of revival then we will see the Lord move in mighty ways and His kingdom will advance in the areas where we live May we Reflect His Glory in an ever increasing manner and answer Revivals Call The Expository Times , 1916 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record , 1894 Social Science and the Christian Scriptures, Volume 1 Anthony J. Blasi, 2017-04-13 Sociologist Anthony Blasi analyzes early Christianity using multiple social scientific theories including those of Max Weber Georg Simmel Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci Max Scheler Alfred Schutz and contemporary theorists He investigates the canonical New Testament books as representative of early Christianity a sample based on usage and he takes the books in the chronological order in which they were written The result is a series of stills that depict the movement at different stages in its development His approaches often neglected in New Testament studies include such sociological subfields as sect theory the routinization of charisma conflict stratification theory stigma the sociology of knowledge new religions the sociology of secrecy marginality liminality syncretism the social role of intellectuals the poor person as a type the sick role degradation ceremonies populism the sociology of migration the sociology of time mergers the sociology of law and the sociology of written communication Needing to treat the New Testament text as social data Blasi uses his background in biblical studies and a review of a vast
