

The background of the image is a close-up of a glass surface, likely a window, covered in numerous small, clear raindrops. Behind the glass, several out-of-focus, warm-toned lights (orange and yellow) are visible, creating a bokeh effect. The overall color palette is a mix of cool blues and greens from the glass and background, and warm oranges and yellows from the lights. The text is overlaid on the lower portion of the image.

The data-driven chapters shed light on concerns and challenges experienced by teachers in diverse international contexts and institutions and discuss the practical implications of their findings across a variety of policy settings. The book addresses aspects of reflective practice including macro and micro policies and constraints as well as opportunities in the engagement of reflective practice. In addition, it explores teachers' identity, cognition, emotion, and motivation areas which are relevant but often not discussed in the literature on reflective practice.

Working in the Presence of God Denise Daniels, Shannon Vandewarker, 2021-10-05 How do we invite God into our everyday lives? Working in the Presence of God discusses the incorporation of spiritual disciplines into the ordinary rhythms of everyday experience. God is already present and active, so by becoming aware of workday rhythms and focusing on where various spiritual practices might be implemented in our jobs, we can be transformed into Christ's likeness through our work. We often think of spiritual practices as preparation for our regular lives in comfortable spaces and ideal settings; we set aside time to hear from God. But what if we can engage in these practices in the midst of our regular lives and particularly at work? This transformation takes place when we surrender our working lives to God, begin to hear his voice, accept his pleasure, and allow his guidance at work. The spiritual practices outlined in the book include: The Liturgy of Commute, Workplace as Holy Ground, Surrendering the Calendar, Reading Scripture in Your Workspace, Affirmation of Calling, Gratitude for God's Blessing and Celebrating Success at Work, Confession at Work, Lamenting Work Solitude, Working in God's Presence, Prayer of Examen for Work, Sabbath, Ceasing from Work.
