It offers inspiring and undated reflections on all 150 psalms with longer psalms split into parts in accordance with the Lectionary. Each reflection is accompanied by its corresponding Psalm refrain and prayer from the Common Worship Psalter making this a valuable resource for personal or devotional use. While preparing for trial Defense Investigator Clint Wells finds that his client abandoned at birth may have a twin brother with a lengthy history of violent crimes. Are they brothers and if so which brother is the killer are just two of the questions Clint must answer in an investigation that takes him halfway across the continent and into the jungles of Central America in search of justice. The Life of Love: An Invitation: Fifty-two Reflections on Emotional and Spiritual Healing Sharon Southwell, 2014-10-26 Is love the place where psychological observation and spiritual wisdom about healing meet? If love is associated with healing of all sorts how do I more consciously set about to grow in love seeking healing for myself and for my neighbours community and world? How do I encourage others in their journeys into love? Drawing on a broad Christian heritage a deep respect for the insights of other religious and spiritual traditions and two decades of work in welfare and clinical settings psychologist Sharon Southwell encourages spiritual seekers of all backgrounds to consider these questions for themselves. Structured in 52 Reflections each followed by Invitations The Life of Love invites you to grow in love by embracing life giving connection to yourself to others your community to art nature and to your ultimate context whether you experience this as God or as some other immanent or transcendent spiritual connection.

Maybe it was during my conception or maybe it was right at birth. But what I do know with certainty is that I love writing. I indulge into the possible possibilities of bringing someones forgotten story or experience into a small memoir of lines that I can probably take to a path where one can relate or identify with.
