Containing Community Greg Bird,2016-09-21 Analyzes the role of community in the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy Community has been both celebrated and demonized as a fortress that shelters and defends its members from being exposed to difference Instead of abandoning community as an antiquated model of relationships that is ill suited for our globalized world this book turns to the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy in search for ways to rethink community in an open and inclusive manner Greg Bird argues that a central piece of this task is found in how each philosopher rearticulates community not as something that is proper to those who belong and improper to those who are excluded or where inclusion is based on one's share in common property We must return to the forgotten dimension of sharing not as a sharing of things that we can contain and own but as a process that divides us up and shares us out in community with one another This book traces this problem through a wide array of fields ranging from biopolitics communitarianism existentialism phenomenology political economy radical philosophy and social theory Roberto's

Dream: The Courage to Construct Pasquale De Marco, Roberto's Dream The Courage to Construct is a heartwarming story about a young termite with a big dream Roberto wants to be an architect but his family and friends don't believe in him They tell him that he should follow in their footsteps and become a termite exterminator Roberto isn't discouraged He knows that he has the talent and the determination to succeed So he leaves his home and sets off on a journey to the big city where he hopes to find a place where he can pursue his dream Along the way Roberto meets a cast of colorful characters who help him on his journey There's the wise old owl who shares his knowledge of architecture with Roberto There's the friendly spider who helps Roberto find a place to live in the big city And there's the hardworking ant who teaches Roberto the importance of perseverance Despite the challenges he faces Roberto never gives up on his dream He works hard learns from his mistakes and eventually achieves his goal of becoming an architect Roberto's story is an inspiration to us all It shows us that anything is possible if we set our minds to it and never give up Roberto's Dream is also a story about the importance of community When Roberto arrives in the big city he is alone and afraid But he soon finds a community of friends who support him and help him achieve his dreams Roberto's story shows us that we are all stronger when we work together Roberto's Dream is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it It is a story of hope inspiration and community If you like this book write a review Peace in Latin America David Díaz Arias,Christine Hatzky,Werner Mackenbach,Sebastián

Martínez Fernández,Joachim Michael,Hinnerk Onken,2024-12-30 This volume shifts the focus from violence to peace studies in Latin America and sheds light on how social groups and individuals resist to violence and strive to create peaceful or at least less violent conditions of conviviality Drawing on social sciences history and anthropology but also on cultural literary and film studies the book examines the role of social mobilizations civic activism and cultural artistic initiatives as responses to the crisis of violence which the state is unable or unwilling to address In this sense it debates what a culture of peace could mean in Latin America Divided into four chapters Chapter 1 discusses peace from an epistemological and philosophical perspective In Chapter 2 the authors discuss the contours of a culture of peace with a particular focus on literary and cinematic narratives Chapter 3 analyses the public debate about the role of the state in peace processes in the case of Costa Rica Central America Chapter 4 examines the importance of civil society activities in peace processes Peace in Latin America is written for a wide and diverse audience that includes researchers professors specialists students civil society activists and political actors not only from Latin America but from all over the world German Sociology: T.W. Asking students to write journals that reflect on their learning has become a widespread pedagogical practice in recent years However the scholarly literature does not address certain key questions about how journal writing aids learning Is there something inherent in journal writing that encourages students to write reflectively What psycholinguistic or cognitive factors help to explain the power of journal writing Why do some students use journals to write prolifically and creatively while others limit their responses to summarizing the assigned course reading Why do teachers find some journal entries so much more engaging than others How do teachers ways of responding to journals affect their students development as writers and thinkers This book addresses such questions through a careful analysis of the journal writing of the students in the author s ESL classes at a large urban college It contains detailed case studies of five culturally and linguistically diverse students with widely differing responses to journal writing To teachers of composition for both first and second language students and to teachers of graduate courses in education and qualitative research this book offers a contextualized description of journal writings as a complex social activity By emphasizing the need for educators to reexamine their pedagogy and to learn from their students Conversations of the Mind is an indispensable contribution to the emerging literature of teacher research and reflective practice Shaping the Journey of Emerging Adults Richard R. Dunn,Jana L. Sundene,2012-02-23 In this book Veteran disciplinmakers Rick Dunn and Jana Sundene offer concrete guidance for those who shepherd and care for emerging adults emphasizing relational rhythms of discernment intentionality and reflection to meet emerging adults where they are at and then to walk with them further into the Christlife The Routledge Companion to study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxism in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art

Musical Listening in the Age of Technological Reproduction Gianmario Borio, 2016-04-29 It is undeniable that technology has made a tangible impact on the nature of musical listening The new media have changed our relationship with music in a myriad of ways not least because the experience of listening can now be prolonged at will and repeated at any time and in any space Moreover among the more striking social phenomena ushered in by the technological revolution one cannot fail to mention music's current status as a commodity and popular music's unprecedented global reach In response to these new social and perceptual conditions the act of listening has diversified into a wide range of patterns of behaviour which seem to resist any attempt at unification Concentrated listening the form of musical reception fostered by Western art music now appears to be but one of the many ways in which audiences respond to organized sound Cinema for example has developed specific ways of combining images and sounds and more recently digital technology has redefined the standard forms of mass communication Information is aestheticized and music in turn is incorporated into pre-existing symbolic fields This volume the first in the series Musical Cultures of the Twentieth Century offers a wide ranging exploration of the relations between sound technology and listening practices considered from the complementary perspectives of art music and popular music music theatre and multimedia composition and performance ethnographic and anthropological research
