The Lifelong Learning Journey of Health Professionals: Continuing Education and Professional Development

Filipe, Helena Prior, Lopez, Mildred Vanessa, 2024-03-06. Health professionals grapple with a critical challenge: the traditional Continuous Medical Education (CME) model falls short of fostering the unique skills and self directed learning required for a dynamic career. As medical practitioners navigate a world of new epidemiological models, technologies and strategies, the need for a transformative solution becomes evident. The Lifelong Learning Journey of Health Professionals: Continuing Education and Professional Development is a book that not only identifies the limitations of existing education models but also provides a comprehensive solution for ushering in a new era of lifelong learning. This compelling book advocates for a paradigm shift towards Continuous Professional Development (CPD), a contemporary concept that embraces non traditional learning formats. It dismantles the inadequacies of credit based training by emphasizing the importance of self direction and self assessment for adult learners. From core principles for designing a robust CPD system to exploring successful models, alternative credentials and the role of learning communities, the book offers a holistic approach to reshaping medical education. Transforming Practice through Clinical Education, Professional Supervision and Mentoring Miranda L. Rose, Dawn L. Best, 2005-09-07. This important resource investigates topics related to clinical education, professional supervision and mentoring. Beyond student supervision, it discusses supervision of professionals in the work place and the emerging importance of professional mentoring for ongoing professional development. Its broad perspective is relevant to a wide range of health professions including audiology dietetics nursing occupational therapy pharmacy physiotherapy podiatry prosthetics and orthotics radiography and speech language pathology Complex theoretical material is presented in a straightforward person centered approach that makes information easily accessible and applicable to practice Written by multidisciplinary experts with academic and research backgrounds who also possess extensive practical experience in a variety of professional health fields Reader friendly engaging material is grounded in current theory and evidence Three distinct but interrelated fields clinical education professional supervision and mentoring are addressed together in one book for the first time Supervision of professionals in their workplace is covered as well as professional mentoring for ongoing professional development Presents complex theoretical material in an engaging person centered approach Acknowledges the importance of psychological well being with chapters on the self in supervision and finding meaning and preventing burnout
