Low Income Consumer Adjusting The Balance Of Exchange:

The Low-Income Consumer Linda F. Alwitt, Thomas Donley, 1996-02-05 Product price promotion and place these are the four key areas in which marketing influences consumers This innovative book takes the stance that poor consumers are distinctly disadvantaged in each of these areas Documenting the imbalance of the exchange process by describing the business practice of those who market to poor consumers issues related to basic necessities such as food housing and transportation are addressed as well as the consumption of sin products by poor consumers The problems faced by those who target low income consumers are also examined including the conflict between sound marketing practices and marginally ethical or unethical applications of those practices The final section of the book Winning in the Indian Market Rama Bijapurkar, 2008 This book focuses primarily on business strategy and decision making as it relates to India's consumer markets It explores various market strategies and examines the failures of those companies that tried but failed to enter the Indian market in the 1990s The book also looks at the possibility that the centre of gravity of the global consumer market might be shifting from the West to China and India Featuring one of a kind insights into the unique makeup of the Indian market this book offers an enlightening look at the consumer future Wiley International Encyclopedia of Marketing, 6 Volume Set, 2011-02-07 With over 300 entries from hundreds of global experts this is one of the premier marketing reference resources available worldwide The 6 volume WIEM provides scholars and professionals with an international guide to marketing concepts and applications The far reaching new developments challenges and opportunities that have arisen in recent years are fully reflected in the entries Scholars and professionals will enjoy the flexible multi level structure with entries ranging from topics summaries to short essays reviewing areas of development and debate Entries are further extended by sophisticated cross referencing both among volumes and between encyclopedia entries and external sources The encyclopedia is also available online For ease of reference the entries are arranged alphabetically within each of the subject volumes Designed to encompass the scope of modern marketing the volumes cover Volume 1 Marketing Strategy Volume 2 Marketing Research Volume 3 Consumer Behavior Volume 4 Advertising and Integrated Communication Volume 5 Product Innovation and Management Volume 6 International Marketing We are Like that Only Rama Bijapurkar, 2009 Taking cues from economics demography history culture philosophy and good old common sense Rama Bijapurkar makes sense of the complex and inscrutable Indian market the many Consumer Indias their diverse and schizophrenic consumer behaviour and the way to make your company's fortune in this billion plus market Irreverent and insightful this book answers the questions to twelve key facets of Consumer India Bijapurkar explains why the Indian consumer market is like that only why it will not change in a hurry and what it takes to develop a winning made for India business strategy Rama has developed a very strong case for learning about India on its own terms before investing This book is a critical read for anyone considering building a large presence for themselves in India From the Foreword by C K Prahalad author of The Fortune at the Bottom of the

Pyramid Islam, Marketing and Consumption Aliakbar Jafari, Özlem Sandikci, 2016-01-13 In recent years a critically oriented sub stream of research on Muslim consumers and businesses has begun to emerge This scholarship located both within and outside the marketing field adopts a socio culturally situated approach to Islam and investigates the complex and multifaceted intersections between Islam and markets This book seeks to reflect various unheard and emerging critical voices from within the Muslim world and provide a series of critical insights on how if and why Islam matters to marketing theory and practice It questions the existing assumptions and polarising discussions which underpin the portrayal of Islam as the other of Modernity while acknowledging that Muslims themselves are partially responsible for creating stereotyped representations of Islam and the Muslim This wide ranging and insightful collection will advance emerging critical perspectives and provide new insights that will influence the generation and application of knowledge in the context of Muslim societies It will open up fresh conversations for scholars in marketing as well as the broader humanities and social sciences

Critical Marketing Pauline Maclaran, Michael Saren, Christina Goulding, Richard Elliott, Miriam Caterall, 2012-06-25 Marketing is still widely perceived as simply the creator of wants and needs through selling and advertising and marketing theory has been criticized for not taking a more critical approach to the subject This is because most conventional marketing thinking takes a broadly managerial perspective without reflecting on the wider societal implications of the effects of marketing activities In response this important new book is the first text designed to raise awareness of the critical ethical social and methodological issues facing contemporary marketing Uniquely it provides The latest knowledge based on a series of major seminars in the field The insights of a leading team of international contributors with an interdisciplinary perspective A clear map of the domain of critical marketing A rigorous analysis of the implications for future thinking and research For faculty and upper level students and practitioners in Marketing and those in the related areas of cultural studies and media Critical Marketing will be a major addition to the literature and the development of the subject
