The California Golden Seals Steve Currier, 2020-10-01 Hockey has had its share of bizarre tales over the years but none compare to the fascinating story of the California Golden Seals a team that remains the benchmark for how not to run a sports franchise From 1967 to 1978 a revolving door of players apathetic owners and ridiculous marketing decisions turned the Seals originally based in Oakland into hockey s traveling circus The team lost tons of money and games cheated death more often than Evel Knievel and left behind a long trail of broken dreams Live seals were used as mascots players wore skates that were painted white on an almost daily basis and draft picks were dealt away nonchalantly like cards at a poker game The California Golden Seals examines the franchise s mismanaged but always interesting history from its ballyhooed beginnings as a minor league champion in the 1960s to its steep slide into oblivion in the late 1970s after moving to Cleveland Through a season by season narrative Currier brings to life the Seals history with lighthearted anecdotes personal interviews and statistics about hockey s most infamous losing team institutions and habits that became central to Canada's character and remain with us today Smythe's story is much deeper and richer than the tale of a cantankerous hockey owner Smythe fought in both world wars fighting at Ypres and Passchendaele in the first war and landing at Normandy in the second He was wounded in both and spent two years as a POW in a German camp after being shot down in 1917 He grew up in poverty and vowed to escape the life that was so incredibly hard on his family Smythe was active in politics and ignited a national crisis over conscription that split the Liberal government in two and brought Mackenzie King to the brink of resignation This book tells the life of one of the country's great characters a man who helped shape and define us and who left behind national habits and institutions that continue to lay at the heart of what makes Canada Canada Saskatchewan Sports Brian Mlazgar, Holden Stoffel, 2007 Library Journal, 2001 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Canadian Books in Print, 2003
