Lucy And The Firestone:

Lucy and the Firestone June Crebbin, 2004 A new title in the highly acclaimed series for beginner readers written using a variety of media and ideal for use in compliance with the literacy strategy Same Time, Same Station James L. Baughman, 2007-03-26 Outstanding Academic Title for 2007 Choice Magazine Ever wonder how American television came to be the much derided advertising heavy home to reality programming formulaic situation comedies hapless men and buxom scantily clad women Could it have been something different focusing instead on culture theater and performing arts In Same Time Same Station historian James L. Baughman takes readers behind the scenes of early broadcasting examining corporate machinations that determined the future of television Split into two camps those who thought TV could meet and possibly raise the expectations of wealthier better educated post war consumers and those who believed success meant mimicking the products of movie houses and radio decision makers fought a battle of ideas that peaked in the 1950s just as TV became a central facet of daily life for most Americans Baughman's engagingly written account of the brief but contentious debate shows how the inner workings and outward actions of the major networks advertisers producers writers and entertainers ultimately made TV the primary forum for entertainment and information The tale of television's founding years reveals a series of decisions that favored commercial success over cultural aspiration Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Select Committee on Small Business United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Small Business, 1969 The American Shropshire Sheep Record Mortimer Levering, Julia M. Wade, 1891 Feminism's Queer Temporalities Sam McBean, 2015-07-16 Despite feminism's uneven movements it has been predominantly understood through metaphors of generations or waves Feminism's Queer Temporalities builds on critiques of the limitations of this linear model to explore alternative ways of imagining feminism's timing It finds in feminism's literary and cultural archive narratives of temporality that might now be diagnosed as queer where queer designates modes of being historical that exceed the linear and the generational Few theorists have looked to popular feminist figures literature and culture to theorize feminism's timing Through methodologically creative readings McBean explores non generational anti linear and asynchronous time in the figure of Antigone Marge Piercy's Woman on the Edge of Time the film Ladies and Gentlemen The Fabulous Stains Valerie Solanas and SCUM Manifesto and Alison Bechdel's Fun Home The first to substantially bring together the ways in which time has come to matter in both feminist and queer disciplines this book will appeal to students and scholars of feminist queer and gender studies cultural studies and literary studies Lucy's Legacy Alison Jolly, 2001 Takes a look at human evolution focusing on the long line of women and of female behavior that was to follow the age of the much studied oldest human remains The American Aberdeen-Angus Herd-book American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association, 1911 Music Radio Jim Cox, 2024-10-17 Long before the invention of talk radio music was the heart and soul of radio programming whether standing alone filling in the time between features or identifying to widespread audiences the shows coming on and signing off the air Jim Cox's Music Radio encompasses the entire range of musical programming from the early 1920s to the early 1960s Jazz country classical gospel pop big band western and semi classical forms are covered as are the vocalists instrumentalists and disc jockeys who made them available to listeners Virtually all the major series and artists are explored in depth and lesser known shows and performers are touched on as well Some of the series included are The Bing Crosby Show The Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street The Fred Waring Show Grand Ole Opry The Bell Telephone Hour The Cities Service Concerts Your Hit Parade The Kate Smith Show The Railroad Hour and The Voice of Firestone History of U.S. Television Lawrence H.
