Trauma and Memory Studies: Responses from India and Beyond Simi Malhotra,Sheikh Sana Assad,Farhana Tasnim,Somya Charan Pahadi,Sango Bidani,2025-09-20 This edited volume offers a comprehensive revaluation of Trauma and Memory Studies foregrounding perspectives from India and beyond It critically interrogates the prevailing Euro centric paradigm within the field advocating for the amplification and contextualization of voices originating from South Asian spatial and temporal contexts Departing from conventional West North centric narratives the text prioritizes the narratives of historically marginalized survivor groups encompassing individuals affected by pivotal events such as the 26/11 terror attacks in Mumbai the Bengal famine the dispersion of the Indian diaspora and the experiences of incarcerated populations in Iran Kenya Palestine etc Through an in depth exploration of societal mechanisms for remembrance and coping strategies vis vis traumatic episodes such as the Jallianwala Bagh massacre the book unveils the intricate interplay of political cultural and social dynamics It explores the complicated dynamics of post colonial and post conflict societies in India by using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies such as examining artistic expressions oral histories and digital media It discusses the ongoing debate between hegemonic historical narratives and the often marginalized voices of subaltern communities This book serves as an indispensable resource for academics students and researchers committed to the exploration of trauma and memory within non Western contexts

In The Typhoon's Eye Bles Chavez-Bernstein,2020-09-29 In The Typhoon's Eye is a story of childhood and growing up amidst struggle sacrifice and concession to a stringent reality while keeping the dreams of youth alive The imagery of Sandig hill with its vast greenery and lush ambiance shaped the perspective of the author as a young artist Readers will share her personal journey in nostalgic local colors that are rendered by the sound of the church bells tolling waking up the lazy town of Ocampo the solemn procession on Easter the crowded Sunday market and the seductive scents of native delicacies sold on the streets Alcohol and post traumatic stress disorder clouded the expression of parental love resulting in the severe upbringing of the author and her siblings Chavez Bernstein has crafted her coming of age tale in a profoundly insightful prose This story is rich in pathos that can grip your heart with truthful tales of human interest Love at first sight was as real as the disrupted lives in her parents generation during the Second World War which blossomed again among those born in the following generation In The Typhoon's Eye is a memoir portraying the author's young life and her courageous treatment of life's adversities Her perseverance passion relentless faith and unbreakable love of family highlight this poignant story

The Madness of History N. J. Dodic, 1994 In this novel the main character narrator is used as a vehicle to make sense of the atrocities in the former Yugoslavia Nightmares & Lullabies Adam Schirling, John Dervishian, 2012-05-15 25 poems each from underground poets John Dervishian and Adam Schirling Raw humanity that stings like a shot of whiskey and warms your soul like a pretty stripper on a cold night

Kuna Art and Shamanism Paolo Fortis, 2013-01-02 Known for their beautiful textile art the Kuna of Panama have been scrutinized by anthropologists for decades Perhaps surprisingly this scrutiny has overlooked the magnificent Kuna craft of nuchukana wooden anthropomorphic carvings which play vital roles in curing and other Kuna rituals Drawing on long term fieldwork Paolo Fortis at last brings to light this crucial cultural facet illuminating not only Kuna aesthetics and art production but also their relation to wider social and cosmological concerns Exploring an art form that informs birth and death personhood the dream world the natural world religion gender roles and ecology Kuna Art and Shamanism provides a rich understanding of this society's visual system and the ways in which these groundbreaking ethnographic findings can enhance Amerindian scholarship overall Fortis also explores the fact that to ask what it means for the Kuna people to carve the figure of a person is to pose a riddle about the culture's complete concept of knowing Also incorporating notions of landscape islands gardens and ancient trees as well as cycles of life including the influence of illness Fortis places the statues at the center of a network of social relationships that entangle people with nonhuman entities As an activity carried out by skilled elderly men who possess embodied knowledge of lifelong transformations the carving process is one that mediates mortal worlds with those of immortal primordial spirits Kuna Art and Shamanism immerses readers in this sense of unity and opposition between soul and body internal forms and external appearances and image and design

A Dolphin in the Woods Composite Translation, Paraversing & Distilling Prose Robin D Gill, 2009-11 Readings combined into a single cluster to English Japanese poems of Joycean density untranslatable as single poems came to be called composite translations While this book essays the translation of poetry and glances at other books of multiple translation it is mostly an exhibition of the art not only intended for serious students or scholars of translation but all word lovers While the author hates how to books writing the last chapter he came to realize that not only translators but monolingual readers who find it hard to compose poems or do not know how to get other people to do so might find it instructive He dreams of millions of people working out their own poems or variations on others work rather than crossword puzzles A crossword solved ends up in the trash with a poem you can have your cake and not only eat it too but serve it up for others to eat amazon com
