Jan Wong's China Jan Wong, 2011-01-28 As the fiftieth anniversary of the People's Republic of China approaches on October 1 1999 Jan Wong reflects on her body of work as a foreign correspondent there Despite the fact that everything is changing she discovers that not much really changes and what she wrote several years ago about love work and living still holds as do the conflicts over who rules who survives and who gets the bigger slice of Peking Duck From a peasant tax revolt through the new consumerism ads on television to the closeted world of Chinese gays Jan Wong's China is a highly personal account of a country in transition Its perspective is shaped by the author's six year reporting stint her life in Beijing in the 70s as a student and a Maoist and her return visit to China in the spring of 1999 Employing humour and behind the scenes detail Jan Wong brilliantly weaves her adventures into a rich journalistic tapestry

Hunger Susan Musgrave, 2025-08-19 From Griffin Poetry Prize finalist Susan Musgrave author of more than thirty five books comes Hunger works selected from Musgrave's last four books with an introduction by Micheline Maylor The Bad Wife Little Wildheart and a humorous and thoughtful after essay by Musgrave herself about the breadth of her literary career This volume features poems written since the death of Musgrave's husband the award winning memoirist Stephen Reid and showcases Musgrave's signature blend of ribaldry wit and the big questions about life love rebellion and aging A visceral and hearty collection of poems and an examination of the feminine principle in the first two decades of the 21st century this selected volume is a tribute to Musgrave's long career and literary wisdom

Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong

Pan,2009-01-01 In Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan tells her personal story and the story of her generation of urban middle school graduates sent to the countryside during China's Rustication Movement Based on interviews reminiscences diaries letters and newspaper accounts the work examines the varied and often perplexing experiences of the seventeen million Chinese students sent to work in the countryside between 1953 and 1980 Rich in human drama Pan's book illustrates how life in the countryside transformed the children of Mao from innocent ignorant yet often passionate believers in the Communist Party into independent adults Those same adults would go on to lead the nationwide protests in the winter of 1978-1979 that forced the government to abandon its policy of rustication Richly textured this work successfully blends biography with a wealth of historical insight to bring to life the trials of a generation and to offer Chinese studies scholars a fascinating window into Mao Zedong's China Book jacket

How to be a Canadian, Even If You Already are One Will Ferguson,Ian Ferguson,2001 It isn't always easy being Canadian according to Will Ferguson but it can be a lot of fun Asked to write a follow up to his runaway bestseller Why I Hate Canadians Ferguson who's Canadian himself recruited his brother Ian comedy writer and executive producer of the Canadian series Sin City and a Canadian too to create this ultimate guide to the country's cultural quirks The result is a hilarious inside look at that unique species the Canadian and their thoughts on such diverse subjects as beer sex dating rituals sports politics religion social rules and of course their trademark death-defying search for the middle of any road

 Prominent Canadians Four Foods Invented by Canadians 1 Processed Cheese J L Kraft grew up on a dairy farm in Stevensville Ontario While working as a grocer he was struck by the amount of cheese that was wasted on wheels of cheddar when the dried rind was scraped off to get at the fresh interior He resolved to find a way to use this waste product experimenting with double boilers preservatives and cheddar Eventually he found a way of stabilizing the dairy product that has come to be known as processed cheese 2 Frozen Foods The technology to freeze food quickly and transport it to markets far away was developed in Halifax in 1928 Within a year ice fillets were being sold to fish deprived Torontonians who loved the taste and didn t seem to mind the high price tag Despite this the fishing industry and private companies lost interest and quickly mothballed the project In 1930 a feisty American Colonel Clarence Birdseye claimed responsibility for developing frozen foods and promptly made a fortune 3 Pablum Invented in 1930 by Dr Alan Brown assisted by researchers Theodore Drake and Fred Tisdall The add water baby cereal revolutionized infant nutrition and of course became synonymous with food that was bland and mushy 4 Poutine Although many claim responsibility for the crowd pleasing combination of squeaky cheese curds canned gravy and french fries it is generally agreed that the first order of this regional specialty of Quebec was served up by restaurant owner Fernand Lachance in 1957 Many variations on the original recipe exist including one deluxe version with foie gras served in Montreal s Pied de Cochon bistro Canadian Book Review Annual ,1975 19 Knives Mark Anthony Jarman,2001 With characters ranging from the desperate to the obsessive and wildly comic Mark Anthony Jarman s 19 Knives employs dazzling linguistic verve and staggering metaphoric powers in every sentence Jarman doesn t just write about people He puts us in their skin so that we feel their frailty and courage No other contemporary Canadian short story writer slices up the imaginative excitement cultural hybridity and Joycean play of language we see in 19 Knives Including one story shortlisted for the U S s prestigious O Henry Prize and several other prize winners this collection brings a major emerging fiction writer to the fore Belling the Cat Mordecai Richler,2010-10-22 More than forty years of scribble scribble scribble and I have been sued only once But this collection of essays is no less a pleasure to read for all that Mordecai Richler is an exuberant essayist with a combative wit and sharp eye regularly offending some endearing himself mightily to others and always hugely entertaining Like all great satirists he is passionate about the world in which we live it s that appetite for life and friendship his love of sanity and common sense as much as his hatred of sacred cows that lies at the heart of this irresistible book Pierre Berton Brian McKillop,2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada s best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920 2004 was different from his peers Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures Red China Blues (reissue) Jan

Wong, 2011-02-04 Jan Wong a Canadian of Chinese descent went to China as a starry eyed Maoist in 1972 at the height of the Cultural Revolution A true believer and one of only two Westerners permitted to enroll at Beijing University her education included wielding a pneumatic drill at the Number One Machine Tool Factory In the name of the Revolution she renounced rock and roll hauled pig manure in the paddy fields and turned in a fellow student who sought her help in getting to the United States She also met and married the only American draft dodger from the Vietnam War to seek asylum in China Red China Blues begins as Wong's startling and ironic memoir of her rocky six year romance with Maoism that began to sour as she became aware of the harsh realities of Chinese communism and led to her eventual repatriation to the West Returning to China in the late eighties as a journalist she covered both the brutal Tiananmen Square crackdown and the tumultuous era of capitalist reforms under Deng Xiaoping In a wry absorbing and often surreal narrative she relates the horrors that led to her disillusionment with the worker's paradise And through the stories of the people an unhappy young woman who was sold into marriage China's most famous dissident a doctor who lengthens penises Wong creates an extraordinary portrait of the world's most populous nation In setting out to show readers in the Western world what life is like in China and why we should care Wong reacquaints herself with the old friends and enemies of her radical past and comes to terms with the legacies of her ancestral homeland

Mordecai Charles Foran, 2010-10-19 Foran's book is the first major biography with access to family letters and archives the definitive detailed intimate portrait of Mordecai Richler the lion of Canadian literature and the turbulent changing times that nurtured him It is also an extraordinary love story that lasted half a century Mordecai Richler won multiple Governor General's Literary Awards the Giller Prize the Commonwealth Writers Prize among others as well as many awards for his children's books He also wrote Oscar nominated screenplays His influence was larger than life in Canada and abroad In Mordecai award winning novelist and journalist Charles Foran brings to the page the richness of Mordecai's life as young bohemian irreverent writer passionate and controversial Canadian loyal friend and deeply romantic lover He explores Mordecai's distraught childhood and gives us the portrait of a marriage the lifelong love affair with

Florence with Mordecai as beloved father of five The portrait is alive and intimate warts and all Acting the Right Part
