Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw, 2024-05-29. Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms, both physical and spiritual, including suffering resulting from social injustice.

exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings Death Until Resurrection Joseph Saligoe, 2020 What really happens to the soul when people die This groundbreaking book may appeal both to Luther experts and to those who know little about the Reformer It demonstrates that Luther constantly taught over the last twenty four years of his life that death is like an unconscious sleep It also shows why this matters today for Christians Death until Resurrection is a great first step in understanding God's plan for renewal of the creation that can alleviate our common fears about death Seeing what exactly the scriptural writers meant regarding death as interpreted by one of the most prominent church leaders ever also provides the benefit of helping us better understand core doctrines such as our resurrection the nature of hell and eternal life through salvation This book offers that which very few writers on Luther have done an explanation that can unravel his apparent contradictions and the Luther paradox on the nature of death and the soul using Luther's own words scattered throughout his voluminous writings Learn which group of widely acclaimed authors or experts on Luther was correct about what Luther believed about death Lohse and George or Althaus and Thiselton Sola Scriptura, 2017-11-06 Sola Scriptura offers a multi disciplinary reflection on the theme of the priority and importance of Scripture in theology from historical biblical theological and systematic theological perspectives aiming at the interaction between exegesis and dogmatics Brian Brock and Kevin J Vanhoozer offer concluding reflections on the theme bringing the various contributions together On Secular Governance Ronald W. Duty, Marie A. Failing, 2016 Based in part on a conference held at Valparaiso University's Chicago location at the Lutheran School of Theology on March 27-28 2014 The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstattd, 2017-06-28 The Holy Spirit and the Lake of Fire What does the Spirit have to do with God's final judgment The Holy Spirit and God's judgment upon sin are not two topics that are often connected but to understand the full work of the Spirit they need to be It is not enough to view judgment as the work of just the Father and the Son but in full Trinitarian fashion it must be understood as the work of all three persons of the Trinity In The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstattd establishes the Spirit's role in judgment by connecting several symbols that are used for both the Spirit and judgment such as fire God's breath and God's arm Furthermore by examining Augustine's position that the Spirit is the mutual love of the Father and the Son and Luther's position that God's wrath is the underside of his love

Umstattd demonstrates how one comes to the conclusion that the Spirit is operative in God's judgment upon sin That You May Know Christopher David Bass, 2008-12-01 A commentary on the theme of assured eternal salvation in 1 John that comes as a result of the person and work of Jesus Christ The Living Church, 1956 Psalms : Volume 2 \(Teach the Text Commentary Series\) C. Hassell Bullock, 2017-12-05 The Teach the Text Commentary Series utilizes the best of biblical scholarship to provide the information a pastor needs to communicate the text effectively The carefully selected preaching units and focused commentary allow pastors to quickly grasp the big idea and key themes of each passage of Scripture Each unit of the commentary includes the big idea and key themes of the passage and sections dedicated to understanding teaching and illustrating the text Machiavelli to Marx Dante Germino, 1979-04-15 Germino examines the scholars of this period whose works he feels have made significant new approaches to the critical understanding of our world and consequently to the problems of our time He discusses utilitarianism liberalism scientism and messianic nationalism Back cover 40 Questions About the Great Commission Daniel L. Thomas, 2023-04-15 Transforming Leadership Pathways for Humanities Professionals in Higher Education includes thirteen essays from a variety of contributors investigating how humanities professionals grapple with the opportunities and challenges of leadership positions Written by insiders sharing their lived experience this collection provides an authentic look at the multiple roles humanities specialists play as well as offers strategies for professional growth sustenance and satisfaction The collection also considers the relationship between disciplinary areas of study academic training and the valuable skill sets and habits of mind that serve higher education leaders While Transforming Leadership Pathways emphasizes that a leadership route in higher education can be a welcome and positive professional move for many humanities scholars the volume also acknowledges the issues that arise when faculty take on administrative positions while otherwise marginalized on campus because of faculty status rank or personal identity This collection demystifies the path into higher education administration and argues that humanities scholars are uniquely qualified for such roles Empathetic deeply analytical attuned to historical context and trained in communication teachers and scholars who hail from humanities disciplines often find themselves well suited to the demands of complex academic leadership in today's colleges and universities

The Body of the Cross Travis E. Ables, 2021-12-07 The Body of the Cross is a study of holy victims in Western Christian history and how the uses of their bodies in Christian thought led to the idea of the cross as a substitutionary sacrifice Since its first centuries Christianity has traded on the suffering of victims martyrs mystics and heretics as substitutes for the Christian social body These victims secured holiness either by their own sacred power or by their reprobation and rejection Just as their bodies were mediated in eucharistic social and Christological ways so too did the flesh of Jesus Christ become one of those holy substitutes But it was only late in Western history that he took on the function of the exemplary victim In tracing the story of this embodied development The Body of the Cross gives special attention to popular spirituality religious dissent and the writing of women throughout Christian history It examines the symbol of the cross as it functions in key moments throughout this history including the parting of the ways of Judaism and Christianity the gnostic debates martyr traditions and medieval affective devotion and heresy Finally in a Reformation era haunted by divine wrath these themes concentrated in the unique concept that Jesus Christ died on the cross to absorb divine punishment for sin a holy body and a rejected body in one

English Evangelicals and Tudor Obedience, c.1527-1570 Ryan Reeves, 2013-11-29 The heart of this book lies in the important discovery that a pivotal Tudor argument in favor of the Royal Supremacy the argument from Psalm 82 that earthly kings are gods on this earth is in fact Zwinglian in origin This teaching from Psalm 82 which originated in Zurich in the mid 1520s was soon used extensively in England to justify the Supremacy and English evangelicals from Tyndale to Cranmer unanimously embraced this Protestant argument in their writings on political obedience The discovery of this link shows conclusive textual proof of the Zurich Connection between Swiss political teachings and those popular under Tudor kings This study argues then that evangelical attitudes towards royal authority were motivated by the assumption that Protestantism supported godly kingship over against papal tyranny As such it is the first monograph to find a vital connection between early Swiss Protestant similar teachings on obedience and later teachings by evangelicals

The Promise of Martin Luther's Political Theology Michael Richard Laffin, 2016-10-20 Michael Laffin demonstrates the promise of Martin Luther's thought for contemporary political theology by showing how Luther has been over determined in standard genealogies of modernity which frequently deafen us to his unique contribution Laffin argues that contemporary theologians have typically followed a narrative derived from the work of a previous generation of political historians and philosophers which tend to screen out or distort the Reformers contribution to political theory Common to these narratives are charges against Luther for his perceived univocal and nominal ontology resulting in a privatized and spiritualized Christianity thus falsely dividing the world into autonomous spheres Additionally the narratives claim that Luther follows in the wake of voluntarism leading to an insistence on human passivity that leaves no room for pagan virtue Thus politics is reduced to an authoritarian imposition of order In contrast to the dominant narratives of political modernity Laffin re examines these narratives by focusing on the political significance of areas in Luther s corpus often neglected in contemporary accounts of his political thought especially his commentaries on Scripture and writings on the sacraments Attention to these writings brings forth the crucial themes of the two ecclesiae and the three institutions Constructively these themes are deployed in critical engagement with contemporary political theology particularly as represented in Radical Orthodoxy and the new Augustinianism
