 quintessential Frenchman one likely pictures Jean Gabin 1904 1976 The son of music hall performers the Paris born actor grew up in the entertainment business His onscreen debut in the 1930 s marked the beginning of many memorable roles in films such as La Grande Illusion 1937 and Le Zola s La Bête Humaine 1938 His performances would earn him international recognition and establish his reputation as one of the greatest stars of film noir Pausing his performances on screen Gabin joined the Allied struggle of WWII Serving under General Charles De Gaulle in the Free French Forces as a tank commander Gabin was awarded several medals for his service Upon his return to acting after the war he became the embodiment of the uniquely French spirit a persona that would define his future roles In Jean Gabin The Actor Who Was France Joseph Harriss tells the story of this French icon This well researched biography documents Gabin s life from his start as a reluctant singer and dancer in Parisian music halls to his rise to film superstardom Harriss recounts the actor s multifaceted persona including his famously fiery temper his tumultuous love affairs including a six year relationship with the German star Marlene Dietrich and his military valor With this enthralling work film enthusiasts can gain an appreciation of France s quintessential movie star and his lasting impact on world cinema during its Golden Age Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron,2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 Pâle douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Verber 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender. Films such as Sitcom François Ozon 1998, L'Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997, Pourquoi pas moi Stéphane Giusti 1999, Dr le de Flix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d'amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and/or gender as unfixed. With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical, melodrama, romance or road movie, these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address.
