Macadam Dreams Lesperance Macadam:

Macadam Dreams Gis_le Pineau, 2003-01-01 A cyclone inexorably sweeps Eliette into her past in this novel about the wayward violence of love and nature in Guadeloupe In Macadam Dreams the celebrated Creole writer Gis_le Pineau cunningly unveils the two cataclysms that have devastated Eliette's life first the cyclone of 1928 when she was only eight years old and now Hurricane Hugo whose destruction shatters the elaborate defenses the old woman has built around the sorrows and madness of her life in the small accursed town of Savane Mulet As Hugo unleashes its fury a final blow frees Eliette's repressed memories of madness isolation and loss and of the grievous failure of a prophecy that promised her a child A story of self discovery Macadam Dreams speaks eloquently of the violence and poverty endured by women of this island nation violence every bit as devastating and seemingly inescapable as the perpetually returning cyclone Viewed by many as a canonical author in the Creole movement in Francophone literature Pineau has created an extraordinary work that is recognized as a masterpiece of French Caribbean literature Reimagining Resistance in Gisèle Pineau's Works Lisa Connell, Delphine Gras, 2022-10-20 As one of the most prominent voices from and about the French Caribbean Gis le Pineau has garnered significant scholarly attention however this interest has culminated in precious few volumes devoted entirely to the author and her work In response to this lack of in depth critical attention Reimagining Resistance in Gis le Pineau's Works brings together a range of perspectives from both sides of the Atlantic and across the Pacific to explore the unique ways in which Gis le Pineau's works redefine the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to gender race history and Antillean identity As this volume ultimately demonstrates resistance holds up a mirror to the political economic and cultural forces that have shaped the past construct the present and build the future It argues that Pineau's characters open the narrative frame for reading them and move us beyond the categories of the wholly defiant or the inherently complicit Above all as they invite us to reimagine resistance they expose our expectations and hopefully shift our understanding about what it means to rise and to fall in a world we seek to call our own Violence in Francophone African and Caribbean

Women's Literature Chantal Kalisa, 2009-01-01 Chantal Kalisa examines the ways in which women writers lift taboos imposed on them by their society and culture and challenge readers with their unique perspectives on violence Comparing women from different places and times Kalisa treats types of violence such as colonial familial linguistic and war related specifically linked to dictatorship and genocide She examines Caribbean writers Michele Lacrosil Simone Schwartz Bart Gis le Pineau and Edwidge Danticat and Africans Ken Begul Calixthe Beyala Nadine Bar and Monique Ilboudo She also includes Semb ne Ousmane and Frantz Fanon Reading/Speaking/Writing the Mother Text; Essays on Caribbean Women's Writing Cristina Herrera, Paula Sanmartín, 2015-08-01 While scholarship on Caribbean women's literature has grown into an established discipline there are not many studies explicitly connected to the maternal subject matter and among them only a few book length texts have focalized motherhood and maternity in writings by Caribbean women Reading Speaking Writing the Mother Text Essays on Caribbean Women's Writing encourages a crucial dialogue surrounding the state of motherhood scholarship within the Caribbean literary landscape to call for attention on a theme that although highly visible remains understudied by academics While this collection presents a similar comparative and diasporic approach to other book length studies on Caribbean women's writing it deals with the complexity of including a wider geographical linguistic ethnic and generic diversity while exposing the myriad ways in which Caribbean women authors shape and construct their texts to theorize motherhood mothering maternity and mother daughter relationships

Ex-centric Writing Annalisa Pes, Susanna Zinato, 2014-10-16 The concern with identity and belonging with place displacement is a major feature of postcolonial literature and the theme of alienation cannot but be topical in the literatures of the countries that have experienced the cultural shock and bereavement and the physical and psychic trauma of colonial invasion The purpose of this volume is to qualify the difference one is faced with when a postcolonial ex-centric text is addressed by collecting essays concerned with writers from Southern Africa the Caribbean Australia the Indian subcontinent and Asian diaspora's While giving contextual specifics their due it shows how the theme of alienation when perceived through the anamorphic lens of madness is magnified and charged with an excruciatingly questioning and destabilizing power laying bare political as well as existential and moral urges From the ex-centric broadly exilic position it is the ideology and practice of colonialism that demand to be rubricated as psychopathology More broadly as these essays highlight in fiction the mad character's ex-centric vision is a continuous warning against the temptation to believe in those discourses that pass themselves off as reflecting the given natural order of things

Tracking the Literature of Tropical Weather Anne Collett, Russell McDougall, Sue Thomas, 2017-01-09 This book tracks across history and cultures the ways in which writers have imagined cyclones hurricanes and typhoons collectively understood as tropical weather Historically literature has drawn upon the natural world for its store of symbolic language and technical device making use of violent storms in the form of plot drama trope and image in order to highlight their relationship to the political social and psychological realms of human affairs Charting this relationship through writers such as Joseph Conrad Herman Melville Gis le Pineau and other writers from places like Australia Japan Mauritius the Caribbean and the Philippines this ground breaking collection of essays illuminates the specificities of the ways local national and regional communities have made sense and even relied upon the literary to endure the devastation caused by deadly tropical weather

Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal, H Adlai Murdoch, 2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers

The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural

Violence in Caribbean Literature Véronique Maisier, 2014-12-11 Violence in Caribbean Literature Stories of Stones and Blood this book looks at the scene of the throwing of a stone found in five novels and uses it as a starting point to an examination of the turmoil of history in the Caribbean the colonial education imposed on Caribbean populations the gendered relations that exist today in the Caribbean region the political status and aspirations of Caribbean nations and the psychological impact of colonization on Caribbean minds The trope of the stone and the analysis of the violence it delivers provide the thread that conducts the linked readings of these novels written by Dominican Jean Rhys Trinidadian Merle Hodge Guadeloupean Gis le Pineau Martinican Patrick Chamoiseau and Jamaican American Michelle Cliff The analytical and critical readings of these writers novels complement each other and draw out their commonalities echoes and differences while the juxtaposition of Anglophone and Francophone novels from different Caribbean nations contributes to a polyphonic understanding of the region While the book offers diversity in the range of countries and languages represented and in the interdisciplinarity of the scholarly fields that intersect in its cultural discussions it maintains its coherence by the unifying theme of violence and its representations in Caribbean literature

Spaces of Creation Allison Connolly, 2016-11-09 Drawing links between the Francophone literatures of Canada the French Caribbean and North Africa Spaces of Creation demonstrates that problematic issues of dynamic postcolonial societies can and do fuel creative acts on the part of women The trying experiences of displaced mothers and their daughters including isolation domestic violence and single parenthood often serve to inspire introspection and creative action In effect their painful frustrating existence provides the opportunity the space of creation necessary to weave and transmit stories Organized around different manifestations of culturally diverse or transcultural spaces depicted in postcolonial literature rural villages domestic spaces city centers and spaces of otherness the monograph uncovers the complexities of mothering and daughtering in contemporary Francophone contexts Through discussion of these spaces the book attests to a specifically feminine transculturality This vision of diversity acknowledges both the heartening and tragic aspects of life in dynamic multicultural communities revealing creative synergies between the literatures of different Francophone diasporas and inviting the reader to reconsider the mother daughter relationship The Cambridge History of the Novel in French
