Maverick War Of The Silver Kings:

Maverick Dennis Broe, 2015-08-15 Demonstrates how Maverick The Legend of the West fractured altered or undermined nearly every Western code and myth Airing on ABC from 1957 to 1962 Maverick appeared at a key moment in television Western history and provided a distinct alternative to the genre's usual moralistic lawmen in its hero Bret Maverick A non-violent gambler and part-time con man Maverick's principles revolved around pleasure and not power and he added humor satire and irony to the usually grim-faced Western In this study of Maverick author Dennis Broe details how the popular series mocked altered and undermined the characteristics of other popular Westerns like Gunsmoke and Bonanza Broe highlights the contributions made by its creators its producer Roy Huggins and its lead actor James Garner to a format that was described as the American fairy tale Broe describes how Garner and Huggins struck blows against a feudal studio system that was on its last legs in cinema but was being applied even more rigidly in television He considers Maverick as a place where multiple counter-cultural discourses converged including Baudelaire's Flaneur Guy DeBord's Situationists and Jack Kerouac's Beats in a form that was acceptable to American households Finally Broe shows how the series validation of Maverick's outside the law status punctured the Cold War rhetoric promoted by the adult Western Broe also highlights the series female con women or flaneuses who were every bit the equal of their male counterparts and added additional layers to the traditional schoolteacher showgirl Western dichotomy Broe demonstrates the progressive nature of Maverick as it worked to counter the traditional studio mode of production served as a locus of counter-cultural trends and would ultimately become the lone outpost of anti-Cold War and anti-establishment sentiments within the Western genre Maverick fans and scholars of American television history will enjoy this close look at the classic series The Films of Budd Boetticher

Robert Nott, 2018-10-02 Budd Boetticher 1916-2001 was a bullfighter a pleasant madman and a talented journeyman filmmaker who could with the right material and drive create a minor Western film classic as easily as he could kill a bull Yet pain and passion naturally mixed in both endeavors Drawing on studio archives and featuring insightful interviews with Boetticher and those who worked with him this retrospective looks at each of his 33 films in detail covering his cinematic career from his days as an assistant's assistant on the set of Hal Roach comedies to his last documentary some 45 years later

ReFocus: The Films of Budd Boetticher Gary D Rhodes, 2017-02-03 One of the most important yet overlooked of Hollywood auteurs Budd Boetticher was responsible for a number of classic films including his famous Ranown series of westerns starring Randolph Scott With influential figures like Martin Scorsese and Clint Eastwood acknowledging Boetticher's influence and with growing academic interest in his work Gary D Rhodes and Robert Singer present a vital collection of essays on the director's long career from a range of international scholars Looking at celebrated films like Buchanan Rides Alone 1958 and Comanche Station 1960 as well as at lesser-known works like Escape in the Fog 1945 and Behind Locked Doors 1948 this book also addresses Boetticher's influential television work on the James Garner series Maverick and

Boetticher's continuing aesthetic influence on contemporary TV classics like Breaking Bad Television in Black-and-white America Alan Nadel, 2005 La couverture indique Alan Nadel's new book reminds us that most of the images on early TV were decidedly Caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences Television did not invent whiteness for America but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the Cold War years Nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of America During this era prime time TV was dominated by adult Westerns with heroes like The Rebel's Johnny Yuma reincarnating Southern values and Bonanza's Cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that Nadel shows bristled with Cold War messages even as they spoke to the nation's mythology America had become visually reconfigured as a vast Ponderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands Shooting Stars of the Small Screen Douglas Brode, 2010-01-01 Since the beginning of television Westerns have been playing on the small screen From the mid 1950s until the early 1960s they were one of TV's most popular genres with millions of viewers tuning in to such popular shows as Rawhide Gunsmoke and Disney's Davy Crockett Though the cultural revolution of the later 1960s contributed to the demise of traditional Western programs the Western never actually disappeared from TV Instead it took on new forms such as the highly popular Lonesome Dove and Deadwood while exploring the lives of characters who never before had a starring role including anti heroes mountain men farmers Native and African Americans Latinos and women Shooting Stars of the Small Screen is a comprehensive encyclopedia of more than 450 actors who received star billing or played a recurring character role in a TV Western series or a made for TV Western movie or miniseries from the late 1940s up to 2008 Douglas Brode covers the highlights of each actor's career including Western movie work if significant to give a full sense of the actor's screen persona's Within the entries are discussions of scores of popular Western TV shows that explore how these programs both reflected and impacted the social world in which they aired Brode opens the encyclopedia with a fascinating history of the TV Western that traces its roots in B Western movies while also showing how TV Westerns developed their own unique storytelling conventions The Garner Files James Garner, Jon Winokur, 2011 One of Hollywood's great leading men James Garner boasts a career that spans six decades Whether known as Bret Maverick Jim Rockford or Noah Calhoun Garner's mass appeal transcends generations but few know the true story of his life now told in his intimate memoir of growing up in Oklahoma and making it in Hollywood After suffering physical abuse at the hands of his stepmother Garner left home at fourteen He went on to become Oklahoma's first draftee of the Korean War and was honoured for his bravery with two Purple Hearts Garner eventually returned to Los Angeles where his acting career took off Working alongside some of the most renowned celebrities among them Julie Andrews Marlon Brando Clint Eastwood Garner became a star in his own right Riding the Video Range Gary A. The Fugitive David Pierson, 2011-11-15 A social cultural historical and institutional analysis of the classic original series The Fugitive Men to Boys Gary S. Cross, 2008 When did maturity become the ultimate taboo Men have gone from idolizing Cary Grant to aping Hugh Grant shunning marriage and responsibility well into their twenties and thirties Gary Cross renowned cultural historian identifies the boy man and his habits examining the attitudes and practices of three generations to make sense of this gradual but profound shift in American masculinity Cross matches the rise of the American boy man to trends in twentieth century advertising popular culture and consumerism and he locates the roots of our present crisis in the vague call for a new model of leadership that ultimately failed to offer a better concept of maturity

Great Society Amity Shlaes, 2019-11-19 The New York Times bestselling author of The Forgotten Man and Coolidge offers a stunning revision of our last great period of idealism the 1960s with burning relevance for our contemporary challenges Great Society is accurate history that reads like a novel covering the high hopes and catastrophic missteps of our well meaning leaders Alan Greenspan Today a battle rages in our country Many Americans are attracted to socialism and economic redistribution while opponents of those ideas argue for purer capitalism In the 1960s Americans sought the same goals many seek now an end to poverty higher standards of living for the middle class a better environment and more access to health care and education Then too we debated socialism and capitalism public sector reform versus private sector advancement Time and again whether under John F Kennedy Lyndon Johnson or Richard Nixon the country chose the public sector Yet the targets of our idealism proved elusive What's more Johnson's and Nixon's programs shackled millions of families in permanent government dependence Ironically Shlaes argues the costs of entitlement commitments made a half century ago preclude the very reforms that Americans will need in coming decades In Great Society Shlaes offers a powerful companion to her legendary history of the 1930s The Forgotten Man and shows that in fact there was scant difference between two presidents we consider opposites Johnson and Nixon Just as technocratic military planning by the Best and the Brightest made failure in Vietnam inevitable so planning by a team of the domestic best and brightest guaranteed fiasco at home At once history and biography Great Society sketches moving portraits of the characters in this transformative period from U S Presidents to the visionary UAW leader Walter Reuther the founders of Intel and Federal Reserve chairmen William McChesney Martin and Arthur Burns Great Society casts new light on other figures too from Ronald Reagan then governor of California to the socialist Michael Harrington and the protest movement leader Tom Hayden Drawing on her classic economic expertise and deep historical knowledge Shlaes upends the traditional narrative of the era providing a damning indictment of the consequences of thoughtless idealism with striking relevance for today Great Society captures a dramatic contest with lessons both dark and bright for our own time Television Westerns Alvin H.
