Reclaiming The Commons:

Reclaiming the Commons Vandana Shiva,2020 Authored by world renowned activist and environmental leader Vandana Shiva Reclaiming the Commons presents the history of the struggle to defend biodiversity and traditional practices against corporate biopiracy and details efforts to realize legal rights for Mother Earth to achieve the vision of the universal commons and Earth as Family Robert F Kennedy Jr Reclaiming the Commons Brian Donahue,2001-01-01 A lively account of a community working to combat suburban sprawl and how it discovers how to live responsibly on the land Reclaiming the Commons,1993 Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good Heather Menzies,2014-04-28 Commoning was a way of life for most of our ancestors In Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good author Heather Menzies journeys to her roots in the Scottish Highlands where her family lived in direct relation with the land since before recorded time Beginning with an intimate account of unearthing the heritage of the commons and the real tragedy of its loss Menzies offers a detailed description of the self organizing self governing and self informing principles of this nearly forgotten way of life including its spiritual practices and traditions She then identifies pivotal commons practices that could be usefully revived today A final manifesto section pulls these facets together into a unified vision for reclaiming the commons drawing a number of current popular initiatives into the commoning frame such as local food security permaculture and the Occupy Movement An engaging memoir of personal and political discovery Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good combines moving reflections on our common heritage with a contemporary call to action individually and collectively locally and globally Readers will be inspired by the book s vision of reviving the commons ethos of empathy and mutual respect and energized by her practical suggestions for connection people and place for the common good Heather Menzies is an award winning writer and scholar and member of the Order of Canada She is the author of nine books including Whose Brave New World and No Time Whose Common Future?,1993 Reclaiming the Commons Vandana Shiva,2020-07-14 Authored by world renowned activist and environmental leader Vandana Shiva Reclaiming the Commons presents the history of the struggle to defend biodiversity and traditional practices against corporate biopiracy and details efforts to realize legal rights for Mother Earth and achieve the vision of the universal commons and Earth as Family Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good Heather Menzies,2014-05-13 An engaging and intimate journey of personal and political discovery Democracy, Markets and the Commons Lukas Peter,2021-01-12 How can we overcome the existing political economic and ecological crises that humanity faces With the notion of the commons Lukas Peter argues that this form of social organization can provide answers to the shortcomings of centralized states and open and competitive markets By building on and going beyond the work of Elinor and Vincent Ostrom he develops an ecological understanding of the commons and human freedom more generally thereby reinterpreting classical thinkers such as John Locke and John Rawls Importantly he does not suggest an end to property states or markets but rather a radical democratization thereof ultimately providing a real alternative for the 21st century The Puppeteer's Strings ,2025-07-05 In an age where technology promises boundless connection yet leaves us feeling lonelier and more divided The Puppeteer's Strings challenges us to confront the invisible forces shaping our minds and lives This profound exploration delves into how ubiquitous technology has transformed human interaction redefined purpose and curated our realities From algorithmic control and digital surveillance to the subtle manipulation of propaganda and the fragmentation of truth the book uncovers the mechanisms that reduce life to metrics and commodify meaning Drawing on timeless wisdom from Aristotle's eudaimonia Stoic resilience Taoist harmony and existentialist freedom Min Hyonu offers a powerful antidote to the Age of Noise It is a journey to reclaim agency break free from digital determinism and redefine what it means to live authentically in a tech driven world The Puppeteer's Strings is not a rejection of technology but an urgent call to examine how we use our tools or how they use us It's for anyone ready to challenge assumptions resist the pull of apathy and reclaim their purpose in a world designed to distract and conform Are you in control of your life or are you being controlled The journey to cut the strings begins here Law, Social Movements and the Politics of the Commons Veronica Pecile,2025-02-17 This book reinterprets the notion of the commons by tracing how it has been mobilised in the aftermath of economic crisis In a period of widespread activism against the privatisation of resources and services implemented through austerity policies the reconceptualisation of property as a non absolute and non individualistic institution has attracted a great deal of attention Drawing on the case of the Italian South and in the wake of economic crisis this book offers a critical analysis of the struggle for the commons More specifically as it details how discourses legal tools and policies based on disciplinary ideas of the commons are deployed in the neoliberal restructuring of societies the book considers how conflicting ideas of the commons express different and often clashing visions of urban space In this regard moreover it shows how law plays a central albeit ambivalent role in the struggle for the commons as both a governmental technique to regulate urban space and its residents and as an emancipatory tactic to advance non proprietary visions of ownership This book will be of interest to scholars in socio legal studies property law legal sociology and politics as well as others with more general interests in the critical potential of contemporary social movements Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron,2018-03-13 An investigation of the practice of commoning in urban housing and its necessity for challenging economic injustice in our rapidly gentrifying cities Provoked by mass evictions and the onset of gentrification in the 1970s tenants in Washington D C began forming cooperative organizations to collectively purchase and manage their apartment buildings These tenants were creating a commons taking a resource housing that had been used to extract profit from them and reshaping it as a resource that was collectively owned by them In Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron theorizes the practice of urban commoning through a close investigation of the city's limited equity housing cooperatives Drawing on feminist and anticapitalist perspectives Huron asks whether a commons can work in a city where land and other resources are scarce and how strangers who may not share a past or future come together to create and maintain commonly held spaces in the midst of capitalism Arguing against the romanticization of the commons she instead positions the urban commons as a pragmatic practice Through the practice of commoning she contends we can learn to build communities to challenge capitalism s totalizing claims over life Whose Common Future? Ecologist (Organization),1993-01-01

Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1878 Service Design for Urban Commons Anna Meroni,Daniela Selloni,2022-08-22 This book explores the application of service design to urban commons It originates from a project developed by the research group of POLIMI DESIS Lab of Politecnico di Milano aimed at imagining the future of the Reggio Emilia Ducal Palace and its park the Reggia di Rivalta The peculiarity of the project lays in the idea that the design of a public space should be informed by the design of its services because the development of specific activities actually builds a fundamental part of the identity of a place conceiving both the tangible and intangible dimensions as part of a single creative process The combination of a participatory process and the integration of spatial and service design led to infrastructuring a multi stakeholder participatory action research of envisioning the future of a public good This effort has been thus framed into a working methodology specific tools and progressive outputs which are defined as Service Master Planning the process and Service Master Plan the product allowing service design professionals to expand their knowledge and develop skills for a new field of application connected to urban planning

Selection of Reports and Papers of the House of Commons ,1836 Proleptic Leadership on the Commons Randal Joy Thompson,2020-10-22 Will capitalism give way to a commons centric society as many scholars and activists predict Viewing the commons as a vehicle for a new world order Randal Joy Thompson proposes proleptic leadership which envisions how leaders will continue to be essential as the custodians of responsible agency and conscious choice The Wealth of the Commons David Bollier,Silke Helfrich,2014-05-23 We are poised between an old world that no longer works and a new one struggling to be born Surrounded by centralized hierarchies on the one hand and predatory markets on the other people around the world are searching for alternatives The Wealth of the Commons explains how millions of commoners have organized to defend their forests and fisheries reinvent local food systems organize productive online communities reclaim public spaces improve environmental stewardship and re imagine the very meaning of progress and governance In short how they ve built their commons In 73 timely essays by a remarkable international roster of activists academics and project leaders this book chronicles ongoing struggles against the private commoditization of shared resources often known as market enclosures while documenting the immense generative power of the commons The Wealth of the Commons is about history political change public policy and cultural transformation on a global scale but most of all it s about individual commoners taking charge of their lives and their endangered resources This fine collection makes clear that the idea of the Commons is fully international and increasingly fully worked out If you find yourself wondering what Occupy wants or if some other world is possible this pragmatic down to earth and unsentimental book will provide many of the answers Bill

McKibben author of Deep Economy The Wealth of Communities and The Durable Future The Cambridge Handbook of Commons Research Innovations Sheila R. Foster, Chrystie F. Swiney, 2021-11-11 The commons theory first articulated by Elinor Ostrom is increasingly used as a framework to understand and rethink the management and governance of many kinds of shared resources These resources can include natural and digital properties cultural goods knowledge and intellectual property and housing and urban infrastructure among many others In a world of increasing scarcity and demand from individuals states and markets it is imperative to understand how best to induce cooperation among users of these resources in ways that advance sustainability affordability equity and justice This volume reflects this multifaceted and multidisciplinary field from a variety of perspectives offering new applications and extensions of the commons theory which is as diverse as the scholars who study it and is still developing in exciting ways Charities and the Commons ,1908

ResponsAbility Betsan Martin, Linda Te Aho, Maria Humphries-Kil, 2018-07-11 ResponsAbility challenges conventional thinking about our governance and legal frameworks The cross currents of persisting established worldviews knowledge systems institutions law and forms of governance are now at odds with future facing innovations designed to help societies transition to both low carbon economies and social equity This book explores the ways in which we can move to new governance and legal structures that more effectively reflect our changed relationship with the Earth in the Anthropocene The book is written by a group of eminent scholars and leading experts from a diverse range of backgrounds all of whom bring new knowledge and analysis from across oceanic and continental regions Many are from the discipline of law whilst others bring expertise on indigenous knowledge climate water governance and philosophy to engage with law Contributors include His Highness Tui Atua Tupua Tamasese Ta'isi Efi Head of State of Samoa Judge Sir E Taikakurei Durie Dame Anne Salmond Pierre Calame and Adrian Macey A number of scenarios are presented throughout the book for the realignment of global and local law to institutionalise responsibility for social environmental and earth centered equity
