

Reconsidering The Object Of Art 1965 1975

Robert R. Redfield

Reconsidering The Object Of Art 1965 1975:

Reconsidering the Object of Art Ann Goldstein, Anne Rorimer, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1995
Reconsidering the Object of Art examines a generally underexposed and therefore often misunderstood period in contemporary art and highlights artists whose practices have inspired much of the most significant art being produced today. It illustrates and discusses many crucial ground breaking works that have not been seen within their proper historical context if they have been individually seen at all. By 1969 such artists as Michael Asher, John Baldessari, Marcel Broodthaers, Dan Graham, Douglas Huebler, Joseph Kosuth, Lawrence Weiner and others had begun to create works using a variety of media that sought to reevaluate certain fundamental premises about the formal material and contextual definitions of art. This first comprehensive overview of Conceptual art in English documents the work of fifty-five artists' work that marked a significant rupture with traditional forms and concepts of painting, sculpture, photography and film. Also included are essays that elucidate the significant aesthetic issues that gave rise in both America and Europe to the highly individual but related modes of Conceptual art. Lucy Lippard, art historian, writes on the broader sociopolitical milieu in which this work was made. Stephen Melville, Professor of Art History, Ohio State University, probes the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of Conceptual art and Jeff Wall, artist, discusses the relationship between Conceptual art and photography. Anne Rorimer and Ann Goldstein, curators of the exhibition, the book accompanies respectively take up the role of language in this work and discuss each of the artists. Copublished with the Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles.

Conceptual Art and the Politics of Publicity Alexander Alberro, 2003 An examination of the origins and legacy of the conceptual art movement

Reconsidering the object of art: 1965-1975 Ann Goldstein, Anne Rorimer, Lucy R. Lippard, 1995 1965-1975, 1995 The exhibition presents works by fifty-five artists from the United States, Canada and Europe whose work, although created in many different media and with widely varying intentions, has in common a challenge to the Western tradition of modernism and to fundamental premises about the object and objective of art. Rewriting Conceptual Art Michael Newman, Jon Bird, 1999-12 An international movement that developed along separate but parallel lines in Europe and America during the 1970s. Conceptual Art grew out of the legacy of Marcel Duchamp, aiming to completely redefine the relationships between the production, definition and ownership of artworks and their various audiences. Conceptual artists rejected traditional formats, media and definitions. Instead, they chose to address some of the key issues underlying modern life and art. These included the gulf between initial idea and finished work, the value assigned works of art in modern economies, the role of women and of feminine creativity in general, the politics of exhibition organization, in short, the ways art and the art world have been defined for centuries. Among the notable figures whose work is discussed in essays ranging from the evaluative to the theoretical are Judy Chicago, Robert Morris, Sol LeWitt, Marcel Broodthaers and Mary Kelly. The influence of Conceptual Art continues to be felt today in the work of such controversial young artists as Rachel Whiteread and Damien

Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism Marin R. Sullivan, 2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972

Yayoi Kusama's Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto's Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson's Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys's Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere

The Curious Case of the Camel in Modern Japan Ayelet Zohar, 2022-08-22 In The Curious Case of the Camel in Modern Japan Ayelet Zohar critically analyzes camel images as a metonymy for Asia and Japanese attitudes towards the continent The book reads into encounters with the exotic animals from nanban art realist Dutch influenced illustrations through misemono roadshows of the first camel pair imported in 1821 Modernity and Japan's wars of Pan Asiatic fantasies associated camels with Asia's poverty bringing camels into zoos tourist venues and military zones as lowly beasts of burden while postwar images project the imago of exotica and foreignness on camels as Buddhist peace messengers Zohar convincingly argues that in the Japanese imagination camels serve as signifiers of Asia as Otherness the opposite of Japan's desire for self association with Western cultures

Kotz argues that the turn to language in 1960s art was a reaction to the development of new recording and transmission media words took on a new materiality and urgency in the face of magnetic sound videotape and other emerging electronic technologies Words to Be Looked At is generously illustrated with images of many important and influential but little known works Kill for Peace Matthew Israel,2013-07-15 The book addresses chronologically the most striking reactions of the art world to the rise of military engagement in Vietnam then in Cambodia Guillaume LeBot Critique d art The Vietnam War 1964 1975 divided American society like no other war of the twentieth century and some of the most memorable American art and art related activism of the last fifty years protested U S involvement At a time when Pop Art Minimalism and Conceptual Art dominated the American art world individual artists and art collectives played a significant role in antiwar protest and inspired subsequent generations of artists This significant story of engagement which has never been covered in a book length survey before is the subject of Kill for Peace Writing for both general and academic audiences Matthew Israel recounts the major moments in the Vietnam War and the antiwar movement and describes artists individual and collective responses to them He discusses major artists such as Leon Golub Edward Kienholz Martha Rosler Peter Saul Nancy Spero and Robert Morris artists groups including the Art Workers Coalition AWC and the Artists Protest Committee APC and iconic works of collective protest art such as AWC s Q And Babies A And Babies and APC s The Artists Tower of Protest Israel also formulates a typology of antiwar engagement identifying and naming artists approaches to protest These approaches range from extra aesthetic actions advertisements strikes walk outs and petitions without a visual aspect to advance memorials which were war memorials purposefully created before the war s end that criticized both the war and the form and content of traditional war memorials Accessible and informative Art Libraries Society of North America Lee Lozano Jo Applin,2018-01-01 An illuminating study of an overlooked artist from the 1960s whose work has recently returned to the limelight This is the first in depth study of the idiosyncratic ten year career of Lee Lozano 1930 1999 assuring this important artist a key place in histories of post war art The book charts the entirety of Lozano s production in 1960s New York from her raucous drawings and paintings depicting broken tools genitalia and other body parts to the final exhibition of her spectacular series of abstract Wave Paintings at the Whitney Museum of American Art in 1970 Highly regarded at the time Lozano is now perhaps best known for Dropout Piece 1970 a conceptual artwork and dramatic gesture with which she quit the art world Shortly afterwards she announced she would have no further contact with other women Her dropout and boycott of women lasted until her death by which time she was all but forgotten This book tackles head on the challenges that Lozano poses to art history and especially to feminist art history attending to her failures as well as her successes and arguing that through dead ends and impasses she struggled to forge an alternative mode of living Lee Lozano Not Working looks for the means to think about complex figures like Lozano whose radical politically ambiguous gestures test our assumptions about feminism and the right way to live and work After Modernist Painting Craig Staff,2013-03-14

Painting has often been declared dead since the 1960s and yet it refuses to die Even the status and continued legitimacy of the medium has been repeatedly placed in question As such painting has had to continually redefine its own parameters and re negotiate for itself a critical position within a broader more discursive set of discourses Taking the American Clement Greenberg s Modernist Painting as a point of departure After Modernist Painting will be both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 50 years Presenting the first critical account of painting rather than art generally this book provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Craig Staff focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of paintings alleged death its response to Installation Art s foregrounding of site how it was able to interpret ideas around appropriation simulation and hybridity and how today painting can be understood as both imaging and imagining the digital After Modernist Painting is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice

A Show of Hands Ileana Parvu, 2024-12-13 In contrast to the divide between conception and execution advocated by Anglo American artists in the second half of the 1960s this book reappraises conceptual art by examining it from the perspective of craft The emphasis on craft shifts the focus from the Western art system to its margins where creators were relegated to the status of mere artisans in the colonial context on the pretext that attaining that of artists was beyond their reach From this peripheral point of view the book shows that work carried out with artisanal means can lead to conceptual practice Moreover this shift in perspective provides a new understanding of several positions within conceptualism which ultimately appears as an ongoing reflection on the role of the hands making and craft Look inside

Background Noise Brandon LaBelle, 2006-01-01 The rise of a prominent auditory culture reveals the degree to which sound art is lending definition to the 21st Century And yet sound art still lacks related literature to compliment and expand the realm of practice Background Noise sets out an historical overview while at the same time shaping that history according to what sound art reveals the dynamics of art to operate spatially through media of reproduction and broadcast and in relation to the intensities of communication and its contextual framework
