Reconstructing Lives Recapturing Meaning:

Reconstructing Lives Recapturing Meaning Linda A. Camino, Ruth M. Krulfeld, 1994 Reconstructing Lives Recapturing Meaning presents the first systematic investigation of refugees loss of their old identities and their efforts to construct new ones Edited by the Chair and Vice Chair of the Committee on Refugee Issues CORI of the American Anthropological Association it critically examines the interplay between cultural ethnic and gender constructions among resettled refugee populations Each chapter is grounded in anthropological theory and method and the book s framework demonstrates the relationship between the dynamics of forced migration and the ways in Power, Ethics, and Human Rights Ruth M. Krulfeld, Jeffery L. MacDonald, 1998-10-29 Refugees experience some of the most visible manifestations of human rights abuses in the world today and raise difficult issues for researchers and policy makers alike This book investigates a broad range of complexities that arise as ethnographers work with refugee populations from different geographic areas in research policy formation and legal and social assistance But the issues raised here have application to ethical concerns in ethnographic research and practice beyond refugees The contributors draw on their intensive fieldwork to explore issues surrounding power and disempowerment between researcher and subject dilemmas over the protection of research informants and the rights and actions of refugees in representing themselves and their cultures in advocacy and policy arenas The wealth of important insights in this book sharpen our understanding of the problems faced in any cross cultural research and intervention These explorations revitalize in vivid detail drawn from case studies recent theoretical debates on anthropology and ethnographic research while suggesting new empowering approaches to applied work and ethnographic study The African Diaspora in Canada Wisdom Tettey, Korbla P. Pupilampu, 2005 This book addresses the conceptual difficulties and political contestations surrounding the applicability of the term African Canadian In the midst of this contested terrain the volume focuses on first generation Black Continental Africans who have immigrated to Canada in the last four decades and have traceable genealogical links to the continent Braving a New World Marycarol Hopkins, 1996-10-21 This ethnography based on a five year field study presents a holistic view of a nearly invisible ethnic minority in the urban Midwest Cambodian refugees Hopkins begins with a brief look at Cambodian history and the reign which led these farmers to flee their homeland and then presents an intimate portrait of ordinary family life and also of Buddhist ceremonial life The book details their struggles to adjust in the face of the many barriers presented by American urban life such as poverty dangerous neighborhoods and unemployment and also by the conflict between their particular needs and American institutions such as schools health care law and even the agencies intended to help them Asylum Determination in Europe Nick Gill, Anthony Good, 2018-12-05 Drawing on new research material from ten European countries Asylum Determination in Europe Ethnographic Perspectives brings together a range of detailed accounts of the legal and bureaucratic processes by which asylum claims are decided The book includes a legal overview of European asylum determination procedures followed by sections on the diverse actors involved the means by which they communicate and the ways in which they make life and death decisions on a daily basis It offers a contextually rich account that moves beyond doctrinal law to uncover the gaps and variances between formal policy and legislation and law as actually practiced The contributors employ a variety of disciplinary perspectives sociological anthropological geographical and linguistic but are united in their use of an ethnographic methodological approach Through this lens the book captures the confusion improvisation inconsistency complexity and emotional turmoil inherent to the process of claiming asylum in Europe
