Burning the Big House Terence Dooley,2022-04-19 The gripping story of the tumultuous destruction of the Irish country house spanning the revolutionary years of 1912 to 1923 During the Irish Revolution nearly three hundred country houses were burned to the ground These Big Houses were powerful symbols of conquest plantation and colonial oppression and were caught up in the struggle for independence and the conflict between the aristocracy and those demanding access to more land Stripped of their most important artifacts most of the houses were never rebuilt and ruins such as Summerhill stood like ghostly figures for generations to come Terence Dooley offers a unique perspective on the Irish Revolution exploring the struggles over land the impact of the Great War and why the country mansions of the landed class became such a symbolic target for republicans throughout the period Dooley details the shockingly sudden acts of occupation and destruction including soldiers using a Rembrandt as a dart board and evokes the exhilaration felt by the revolutionaries at seizing these grand houses and visibly overturning the established order

Portrait of a Party Stuart Ball,2013-04-25 The Conservative Party is the least investigated and understood of British political parties despite its long record of success Using an original approach and an unparalleled range of sources Stuart Ball analyses the nature and working of the Conservative Party during one of the most significant and successful periods in its history The creation of a democratic franchise in 1918 was followed by nearly three decades of Conservative dominance it was the largest party in the House of Commons and in government for almost 25 years between 1918 and 1945 Stuart Ball explores this remarkable record in a different way by taking a thematic rather than a chronological approach He begins with the foundations of Conservative principles attitudes and identities and examines the nature of the party's electoral support He investigates the Conservative Party as an organism uncovering the composition roles and relationships of every level from the constituency grass roots through the party machine and the parliamentary ranks to the Cabinet Ministers and the Party Leader Portrait of a Party is based upon a wide range of archives including the personal papers of all five Party Leaders nearly 50 Cabinet Ministers and 85 backbench MPs party officials and others combined with the rich resources of the national and regional records at the Conservative Party Archive and a major investigation to locate all the significant collections of local Conservative Association records in England Scotland and Wales a total of 215 constituencies from Truro to Inverness These sources shed new light on topics which are essential to an understanding of British history in the inter war period and the development the Conservative Party to the present day major immigration of adherents of Islam Hinduism Sikhism and other faiths from outside Europe developments scarcely conceivable at the outset Such a broad contextual perspective provides an essential background to understanding the puzzling ambiguities evident both in secularization and enduring Christian faith Robbins provides a cogent and compelling overview of this turbulent century for the churches of the Isles A Guide to the Papers of British Cabinet Ministers 1900-1964 Cameron Hazlehurst, Sally Whitehead, Christine Woodland, 1996 A Guide to the Papers of British Cabinet Ministers 1900 1964 is the revised and expanded edition of a volume published by The Royal Historical Society in 1974 Up to date information on the papers of 323 ministers from the first edition is provided and its scope has increased from 323 ministers to include all Cabinet ministers until the resignation of Sir Alec Douglas Home as Prime Minister in 1964 This Guide is a major research tool and a source of information on the personal papers of British Cabinet ministers British India and Tibet: 1766-1910 Alastair Lamb, 2018-10-26 This book first published in 1960 and revised in 1986 is an important analysis of the under studied Northern frontier of the British Indian Empire It considers British relations across the Himalayas looking at encounters with Bhutan Sikkim Nepal and Tibet Soldiers and Settlers in Africa Stephen M.
