Forging Alliances in Community and Thought Irma N. Guadarrama, 2002-10-01 Besides creating an outlet or vehicle for the promotion and the dissemination of theory and practice in the professional development school field the book series project will focus on topics at the forefront of current discussion and dialogue among experts The manuscripts will be carefully and systematically selected to provide the expression of an array of voices especially those that speak from insightful first hand experience Included are the voices of the researchers who strive to design and implement research that seeks to inform practice The book series will underscore the depth and substance of research quantitative and qualitative designs and their applications in a variety of contexts

Professional Practice in Health, Education and the Creative Arts Joy Higgs, Angie Titchen, 2008-04-15 Society is rapidly changing its expectations of professionals in all arenas In this book we focus on changing patterns of professional practice in health education and the creative arts In each of these areas professional practice care is undergoing major reform in a complex and rapidly changing environment This multi authored text explores professional practice in four key dimensions doing knowing being and becoming These concepts have been chosen to represent professional practice as much more than applying learned knowledge in practice situations The authors present professional practice as a lived and dynamic experience as well as a process a service for and with others and a way of being and behaving The text explores the essential unity of knowledge and practice through discourse narrative imagery and critical debate This is a book for all those seeking to learn and to improve practice

Lives in Context Ardra L. Cole, Gary J. Knowles, 2001-07-30 The reflexive turn in qualitative research has transformed the process of doing life history research No longer are research subjects examined through the lens of the all knowing but supposedly invisible researcher As Ardra Cole and Gary Knowles point out in this fresh introduction to conducting life history research the process is now one of mutuality empathy sensitivity and caring The authors carry the novice researcher through the steps of conducting life history research from conceptualizing the project to the various means of presenting results with an eye toward understanding the complex relationship between participant and researcher and how that shapes the project In addition to examples from their own research Cole and Knowles bring in the work of a dozen novice researchers who explain the challenges they faced in developing their own life history projects in a wide variety of settings Well written interesting and pedagogically sound Lives in Context is the ideal text for teaching life history research to students and an important reference for the bookshelf of all qualitative researchers Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen,S.

Ramadevi,2012-02-01 Reeducating the Educator focuses on community building within teacher education programs in Canada Israel Australia and the United States Maintaining that communities have to be built and sustained the contributors discuss possible theoretical frameworks underlying community building and change and suggest that there is a need for teacher educators to go beyond localized experiences and reach out to one another in a global discussion Because of the impact of local cultures and histories key questions and issues vary from one country to another and even from one faculty to another but the resulting global conversation provides a greater understanding of the professional development of teachers and teacher educators Telling Stories in Book Clubs Mary Kooy,2006-08-15 Mary Kooy s Telling Stories in Book Clubs gives us a compelling provocative and insightful picture of teachers reading talking and learning together By weaving together the responses of the novice teachers book club the experienced teachers book club and her own thoughtful analyses Kooy has documented what teacher learning looks like from the inside This book is a must read for all those interested in professional development across the lifespan Marilyn Cochran Smith Boston College Kooy s narrative about book clubs as learning communities makes a significant contribution to both research and practice Tying together reading teaching and learning the book gives us a superb example of how to nurture the intellectual and relational needs for continuous teacher growth and development The book is a must for teachers researchers and policymakers Ann Lieberman emeritus professor from Teachers College Columbia University and Senior Scholar at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Mary Kooy is a gifted writer and teacher She takes the obvious truth that we read books with other people and turns it into a compelling work of professional development We see the communities emerge and coalesce We see the self reflective questioning that is at the heart of all good teaching take shape through interaction and nurturing From the Foreword by Jo Anne Pagano Colgate University The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson,Ari Antikainen,Pat Sikes,Molly Andrews,2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study The embrace of narrative and life history work has accompanied the move to postmodernism and post structuralism across a wide range of disciplines sociological studies gender studies cultural studies social history literary theory and most recently psychology Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context Topics covered include The historical emergences of life history and narrative study Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study Identity and politics Generational history Social and psycho social approaches to narrative history With chapters from expert contributors this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students researchers and educators interested in narrative theory analysis and interpretation

Systemic Violence in Education Juanita Ross Epp,Ailsa M. Watkinson,1997-04-25 Although compulsory schooling intends to develop the potential of all students some students may actually be harmed by schooling practices In this book researchers and practitioners identify and examine various aspects of systemic violence particularly as it is embedded in administrative and pedagogical practices Some of these are obvious racism harassment and child abuse however systemic violence is insidious and may reside in common sense practices intended to improve student performance The authors explore some of these subtle manifestations of violence from a variety of perspectives by investigating school administration policies pedagogical methods labeling classroom interaction children s games and teacher reactions to child abuse
