Palmujoki, 2001-10-25 Eero Palmujoki examines the regionalist debate in Southeast Asia from the end of the Cold War up to the beginning of the new millennium He focuses on the organization of the ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations and covers the political economic and security issues characterizing its development The book compares the theoretical debate with political developments in the region from the beginning of the post Cold War period with its rapid economic growth through the Asian economic crisis of 1997 and the resulting restructuring of Southeast Asian regional systems The Chinese/Vietnamese Diaspora Yuk Wah Chan, 2012-06-12 Over three decades have passed since the first wave of Indochinese refugees left their homelands These refugees mainly the Vietnamese fled from war and strife in search of a better life elsewhere By investigating the Vietnamese diaspora in Asia this book sheds new light on the Asian refugee era 1975 1991 refugee settlement and different patterns of host guest interactions that will have implications for refugee studies elsewhere The book provides a clearer historical understanding of the group dynamics among refugees the ethnic Chinese Vietnamese refugees from both the North and South as well as the northern Vietnamese refugees an examination of different aspects of migration including planning for migration choices of migration route and reasons for migration an analysis of the ethnic and refugee politics during the refugee era the settlement and subsequent resettlement This book will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization migration ethnicities refugee histories and politics Studies in Comparative

Bilateral Legacies in East and Southeast Asia N Ganesan, 2016-04-29 This edited volume examines the concept of overhangs or legacies or negative stereotypical images in international relations and their impact on bilateral relations between geographically proximate states in East Asia The case studies chosen Japan Korea Japan China Vietnam China Thailand Myanmar and Thailand Cambodia demonstrate conclusively that bilateral overhangs or legacies have a significant impact on contemporary international relations Such images are regularly replicated and stoked by a variety of constituencies including state agencies for their own selfish interests The evidence also points to the fact that such bilateral relationships are relatively self contained and often operate with their own dynamics Powerful condensation symbols are appropriated to weave a story of the virtuous self and the stereotypical other This negative image and its replication is important to an understanding of turbulent bilateral relations in East Asia and also helps to inform how such relations can be brought to an even keel

Political Oppositions in Industrialising Asia Garry Rodan, 2013-04-15 Industrialization has meant sweeping social transformations across Asia Some political commentators have predicted that the expansion of civil society and the rapid development of liberal democracy will necessarily follow The contributors to this volume dissect the extent of political opposition in Asia and analyze the nature of new social movements outside institutional party politics which are contesting the exercise of state power Nine original case studies explore the variety of political oppositions across Asia from non governmental organizations and the formal opponents of the PAP in Singapore to Chinese dissidents based outside the People's Republic of China All take up the challenge of looking at political opposition in the light of the new social phenomenon of the rising middle class or new rich of Asia Garry Rodan's hard hitting analysis of the problems of current political theorizing in relation to Asia sets the case studies firmly in the context of wider debates about democratization Political Oppositions in Industrialising Asia shatters complacent assumptions about the progress of liberal democracy

Wealth and Justice Peter Wehner, Arthur C. Brooks, 2010-10-16 Popular opinion would have us believe that America's free market system is driven by greed and materialism resulting in gross inequalities of wealth destruction of the environment and other social ills Even proponents of capitalism often refer to the free market as simply a lesser evil whose faults are preferable to those of social democracy or communism But what if the conventional understanding of capitalism as corrupt and unprincipled is wrong What if the free market economy actually reinforces Christian values In Wealth and Justice The Morality of Democratic Capitalism Arthur C Brooks and Peter Wehner explore how America's system of democratic capitalism both depends upon and cultivates an intricate social web of families churches and communities Far from oppressing and depriving individuals the free market system uniquely enables Americans to exercise vocation and experience the dignity of self sufficiency all while contributing to the common good The fruits of this system include the alleviation of poverty better health and greater access to education than at any other time in human history but also a more significant prosperity the flourishing of the human soul Harvest Of Fear John Murphy,2019-03-13 How did fears of the Cold War shape Australian images of Asia What was the nature of the Vietnamese revolution which some 50 000 Australian troops failed to reverse in the 1960s How did a small and marginal peace movement grow into the powerful Moratorium and did it have any impact on the course of the War Harvest of Fear is a beautifully craf Anatomy of a Crisis David M. Ayres,2000-01-01 This work challenges the widespread belief that Cambodia s education crisis is part of the dreadful legacy of the Khmer Rouge holocaust in which thousands of students teachers and intellectuals perished It draws on an extensive range of sources The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Postwar Indochina Joseph Jermiah Zasloff,1989 Historical Dictionary of Vietnam Bruce M.
