House Colors Susan Hershman, 2009-09 House Colors is the most comprehensive resource ever compiled on choosing exterior house colors Sorted by architectural style this format will allow the reader to pinpoint the colors that will best suit their style of home It is the ultimate resource for those looking to achieve exceptional color combinations from subtle to bold that are so difficult to achieve without professional design assistance

The Red Window Fergus Hume, Conniston and Gore they used the old names in preference to the new walked across the grass to an isolated seat under a leafless elm The two old friends had met near the magazine in Hyde Park on the borders of the Serpentine and the meeting was as unexpected as pleasant It was a gray damp October day and the trees were raining yellow brown and red leaves on the sodden ground Yet a breath of summer lingered in the atmosphere and there was a warmth in the air which had lured many people to the Park Winter was coming fast and the place untidy with withered leaves bare of flowers and dismal under a sombre windy sky looked unattractive enough But the two did not mind the dreary day Summer the summer of youth was in their hearts and recalling their old school friendship they smiled on one another as they sat down In the distance a few children were playing their nursemaids comparing notes or chatting with friends or stray policemen so there was no one near to overhear what they had to say A number of fashionable carriages rolled along the road and occasionally someone they knew would pass But vehicles and people belonged to the old world out of which they had stepped into the new and they sat like a couple of Peris at the gate of Paradise but less discontented Both the young men were handsome in their several ways The yeoman was tall slender dark and markedly quiet in his manner His clear cut face was clean shaven he had black hair dark blue eyes put in as the Irish say with a dirty finger and his figure was admirably proportioned In his khaki he looked a fine specimen of a man in his twenty fifth year But his expression was stern even bitter and there were thoughtful furrows on his forehead which should not have been there at his age Conniston noted these and concluded silently that the world had gone awry with his formerly sunny faced friend At Eton Gore had always been happy and good tempered Conniston himself formed a contrast to his companion He was not tall but slightly built and wiry alert in his manner and quick in his movements As fair as Gore was dark he wore a small light mustache which he pulled restlessly when excited In his smart tight fitting uniform he looked a natty jimpy soldier and his reduced position did not seem to affect his spirits He smiled and joked and laughed and bubbled over with delight on seeing his school chum again Gore was also delighted but being quieter did not reveal his pleasure so openly

Red Paint Valerie Van Clieaf, 2021-04-15 Striking prose and the diverse cast includes numerous Indigenous characters A vigorous thriller Kirkus Reviews Van Clieaf expertly walks the line between police procedural and psychological thriller in her second installment in the Alex Desocarras Mystery Series Gritty and poignant at once this page turning mystery is a winner The Prairies Book Review RED PAINT Alex Desocarras has been an RCMP detective for 15 years A brilliant detective his solve rate is legendary Days before suspected members of a paedophile ring are set to go to trial an important crown witness in the case against them is found brutally murdered The ring operated undetected in British Columbia for years and their arrogant exploitation of vulnerable children among them a young member of Desocarras Secw pemc Nation and the abysmal failure of the police to protect the boy and others like him keeps Alex awake at night An Indigenous hacktivist seeking information about the murder of the crown witness finds a coded message hidden on an RCMP server He risks exposure to warn Alex of its chilling contents pushing Alex headlong into a nightmare chain of events that will test the limits of his endurance against a ruthless adversary and ultimately force him to choose where his allegiance lies

The Red Window Fergus Hume,1904 Red Paint Sasha LaPointe,2023-03-07 An Indigenous artist blends the aesthetics of punk rock with the traditional spiritual practices of the women in her lineage in this bold contemporary journey to reclaim her heritage and unleash her power and voice while searching for a permanent home Sasha taq s blu LaPointe has always longed for a sense of home When she was a child her family moved around frequently often staying in barely habitable church attics and trailers dangerous places for young Sasha With little more to guide her than a passion for the thriving punk scene of the Pacific Northwest and a desire to live up to the responsibility of being the namesake of her beloved great grandmother a linguist who helped preserve her Indigenous language of Lushootseed Sasha throws herself headlong into the world determined to build a better future for herself and her people Set against a backdrop of the breathtaking beauty of Coast Salish ancestral land and imbued with the universal spirit of punk Red Paint is ultimately a story of the ways we learn to find our true selves while fighting for our right to claim a place of our own Examining what it means to be vulnerable in love and in art Sasha offers up an unblinking reckoning with personal traumas amplified by the collective historical traumas of colonialism and genocide that continue to haunt native peoples Red Paint is an intersectional autobiography of lineage resilience and above all the ability to heal

Report United States. Congress Senate,1960 Painting the Town Red Bob Dent,2018-03-20 The intensely political cultural production that erupted during Hungary s short lived Soviet Republic of 1919 encompassed music art literature film and theatre Painting the Town Red is the little known history of these developments The book opens with an overview of the political context in Hungary after the First World War and how the Soviet Republic emerged in the chaotic months which followed the collapse of the Austro Hungarian Dual Monarchy It looks at the subsequent roles during the Soviet Republic of artists film makers actors musicians and writers and the attitude of the newly established People s Commissariat for Education and Culture in which the future internationally renowned Marxist Gyorgy Lukacs played a leading role At its centre are the questions why did so many prominent people in the arts world participate in the Soviet Republic and why did their initial enthusiasm later subside Painting the Town Red is an important contribution to the lively debate about the interaction between art and politics
