Bevans and Roger P. Schroeder, 2011 In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Publisher website The Legacy of John Paul II Tim Perry, 2007-10-16 The papacy of John Paul II was phenomenal and not least for the fact that many evangelicals came to honor and respect him Tim Perry calls on some of the best evangelical minds to offer their assessments of the thought of John Paul II as expressed in his major encyclicals Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kaariainen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God John Oman Adam Hood, 2014-07-08 A volume of significant contributions to our understanding of John Oman With an impressive list of contributors Adam Hood Alan Sell Fleur Houston David Thompson Eric McKimmon Stephan Bevans John Hick John Nightingale and Ashok Chaudari the volume is unique in a number of ways It provides a more detailed historical account of Oman's life and work than that offered before often drawing on primary

Witnessing God Alexander E. Massad, 2024-12-16 This book is a comparative theological investigation into the following question how does one theologically understand the sincere truth seeking religious other who rejects one's truth claims not out of animosity or ignorance but rather from a desire to worship God in spirit and in truth Specifically this book investigates the extent to which soteriologically exclusivist Muslims and Christians maintain their respective truth claims while maintaining a posture of vulnerability to the revisionary power of the religious other's claims To answer these questions this book examines comparative theology's missiological foundation through a dialogical study of neo-Calvinist and Reformist Sunni understandings of the epistemic status of the religious other This book is a practice in comparative theology with the goal of rethinking neo-Calvinist theology of religions through Islamic thought to present a missiological comparative theology amenable to exclusivist theological positions within Christianity and Islam The Call to Personhood Alistair I.

McFadyen,1990-10-26 This book is an attempt to answer the question What is a person Although the answer is given in largely theoretical terms the author is concerned primarily with practice what does it mean to live as a human person in community with others What personal social and political practices are required by personal being The central insight that human identity is most productively understood in communicational terms leads to an account of personhood which is both compassionate and which at the same time keeps sight of the particularity of each individual The Federal Theology of Johannes Cocceius (1603-1669) Willem van Asselt,2021-10-01 This volume deals with the Federal theology of Johannes Cocceius who lived in the seventeenth century 1603 1669 German by birth he taught at Bremen Franeker and Leiden where he was Professor of Theology 1650 1669 As foremost biblical interpreter he sought to formulate a Covenant theory which described all of human history by introducing the structure of consecutive covenants or foedera The book poses a surprising alternative to the readings of earlier scholarship on Cocceius by its careful presentation of the pneumatological components of the doctrine of covenants Cocceius Federal theology was of considerable importance in the theological and political history of Europe and the United States and forms the framework for much of the Reformed theology in the past three centuries

Exile David Patterson,2021-12-14 The life of a human community rests on common experience Yet in modern life there is an experience common to all that threatens the very basis of community the experience of exile No one in the modern world has been spared the encounter with homelessness Refugees and fugitives the disillusioned and disenfranchised grow in number every day Why does it happen What does it mean And how are we implicated David Patterson responds to these and related questions by examining exile a primary motif in Russian thought over the last century and a half By exile he means not only a form of punishment but an existential condition Drawing on texts by such familiar figures as Dostoevsky Tolstoy Solzhenitsyn and Brodsky as well as less thoroughly examined figures including Florensky Shestov Tertz and Gendeleev Patterson moves beyond the political and geographical fact of exile to explore its spiritual metaphysical and linguistic aspects Thus he pursues the connections between exile and identity identity and meaning meaning and language Patterson shows that the problem of meaning in human life is a problem of homelessness that the effort to return from exile is an effort to return meaning to the word and that the exile of the word is an exile of the human being By making heard voices from the Russian wilderness Patterson makes visible the wilderness of the world Creating Democratic Societies Plamen
