Redon Seurat The Symbolists:

Redon, Seurat and the Symbolists Odilon Redon, 1975 Paul Gauguin The Cloisonnistes Vincent van Gogh The Nabis Henri de Toulouse Lautrec Redon, Seurat and the Symbolists, 1981 Redon, Seurat and the Symbolists Himilce Novas, 1989 Redon, Seurat and the Symbolists McCall Publishing Co, 1970 The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, 1984-01-01 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today Symbolist Art in Context Michelle Facos, 2009-03-31 The Symbolist art movement of the late 19th century forms an important bridge between Impressionism and Modernism But because Symbolism emphasizes ideas over objects and events it has suffered from conflicting definitions In this book Michelle Facos offers a comprehensive description of this challenging subject The Nabis and Intimate Modernism Katherine M. Kuenzli, 2017-07-05 Providing a fresh perspective on an important but underappreciated group of late nineteenth century French painters this is the first book to provide an in depth account of the Nabis practice of the decorative and its significance for twentieth century modernism Over the course of the ten years that define the Nabi movement 1890 1900 its principal artists included Edouard Vuillard Pierre Bonnard Maurice Denis Paul Signac and Paul Ranson The author reconstructs the Nabis relationship to Impressionism mass culture literary Symbolism Art Nouveau Wagnerianism and a revolutionary artistic tradition in order to show how their painterly practice emerges out of the pressing questions defining modernism around 1900 She shows that the Nabis were engaged nonetheless with issues that are always at stake in accounts of nineteenth century modernist painting issues such as the relationship of high and low art of individual sensibility and collective identity of the public and private spheres The Nabis and Intimate Modernism is a rigorous study of the intellectual and artistic endeavors that inform the Nabis decorative domestic paintings in the 1890s and argues for their centrality to painterly modernism The book ends up not only re positioning the Nabis to occupy a crucial place in modernism s development from 1860 to 1914 but also challenges that narrative to place more emphasis on notions of decoration totality and interiority

Conservative Echoes in

Fin-de-Si_cle Parisian Art Criticism Michael Marlais, 2010-11-01 While the painting of the 1880s and 1890s in Paris has been studied in great depth the concurrent art criticism has not been given the attention it deserves Conservative Echoes examines previously unexplored aspects of the symbolist criticism of art revealing its conservative nature and thus providing a new view of the art criticism of one of the most significant periods in the development of modern art Art historians tend to focus on a small body of criticism written by authors who championed one or more of the artists recognized today as leaders of the avant garde In essence it is the art that directs most studies of criticism rather than the criticism itself Michael Marlais has studied late nineteenth century criticism on all levels from popular press to esoteric review in order to understand the context in which avant garde art criticism appeared He focuses on the critics Félix Fénéon Albert Aurier Alphonse Germain Camille Mauclair and Maurice Denis noting both conservative and modernist features of their writing while attempting to situate them within the antinaturalist intellectual trends of the period Marlais emphasizes the relationship of avant garde critics to the broader cultural milieu thus providing both a valuable corrective in the study of fin de si_cle art history and another way of understanding the cultural climate in Paris during that time The Symbolists Philippe Jullian,1977

Cézanne and the End of Impressionism Richard Schiff,2014-12-15 Drawing on a broad foundation in the history of nineteenth century French art Richard Schiff offers an innovative interpretation of Cézanne's painting He shows how Cézanne's style met the emerging criteria of a technique of originality and how it satisfied critics sympathetic to symbolism as well as to impressionism Expanding his study of the interaction of Cézanne and his critics Schiff considers the problem of modern art in general He locates the core of modernism in a dialectic of making technique and finding originality Ultimately Schiff provides not only clarifying accounts of impressionism and symbolism but of a modern classicism as well Symbolist Landscapes

France Suzanne Singletary,2016-11-18 James McNeill Whistler and France A Dialogue in Paint Poetry and Music is the first full length and in depth study to position this painter within the overall trajectory of French modernism during the second half of the nineteenth century and to view the artist as integral to the aesthetic projects of its most original contributors Suzanne M Singletary maintains that Whistler was in a unique situation as an insider within the emerging French avant garde thereby in an enviable position to both absorb and transform the innovations of others and that until now his widespread influence as a catalyst among his colleagues has been neither investigated nor appreciated Singletary contends that Whistler's importance rivals that of Manet whose multi layered and often unexpected interconnections with Whistler are the focus of one chapter In addition Whistler's pivotal role in linking the legacies of Baudelaire Delacroix Gautier Wagner and other mid century innovators to the later French Symbolists has previously been largely ignored Courbet Degas Monet and Seurat complete the roster of French artists whose dialogue with Whistler is highlighted The Concise New Makers of
