Swartz,2016-08-01 This work is a memoir As a child and a young man I rarely felt entitled to breath air Emotionally neglected by my father as a teen I left home for a prep school at which I would spend the worst three years of my life Trouble followed two failed attempts at undergraduate college until I found my way to a horseshoeing school out west I was able to work as a professional farrier for several years until a ruptured disc in my back forced a career change I chose psychology as somewhere in the back of my mind the depression I endured as a child motivated me back to school to try to help others eventually becoming a licensed psychologist It was a good fit and I have been practicing for the past twenty five years including many years as an instructor in psychology for Harvard Medical School About seven years ago I acquired tinnitus along with 50 to 60 million other Americans and using my personal practice of meditation developed a program to help myself and my patients manage this chronic illness In short this work traces the forging of a debilitating sense of self and outlines the potential for it s death resulting in a selflessness that connects to the boundless goodness of the universe Lastly I have been helped in no small way throughout by the profound empathy I have shared with many magnificent beasts of the canine variety
