Reflections From My Heart:

Reflections of My Heart Ken Oswald,2011-02 Life is an adventure sometimes we take it for granted Reflections of my heart are things emotions and feelings i have felt and lived through in my life that many of you may be able to relate to as well People come into your life for a reason a season or a lifetime When someone is in your life for a REASON it is usually to meet a need you have expressed They have come to assist you through a difficulty to provide you with guidance and support To aid you physically emotionally or spiritually They may seem like a godsend and they are They are there for the REASON you need them to be Some people come into your life for a SEASON because your turn has come to share grow or learn They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh They may teach you something you have never done They usually give you an unbelievable amount of joy Believe it it is real But only for a SEASON LIFETIME relationships teach you lifetime lessons Things you must build upon in order to have a solid emotional Foundation Your job is to accept the lesson Love the person and put what you have learned to use in all other Relationships and areas of your life It is said that love is blind but friendship is clairvoyant Thank you for being a part of my life Whether you were a reason a season or a lifetime

Tr. from the Fr* Reflections, 1876 The Whole Works of John Flavel John Flavel, 1820 Women and Martial Art in Japan Kate Sylvester, 2022-11-30 This book based on extensive original research examines the practice by women in a university sport setting of kendo, the Japanese martial art which using bamboo swords as well as protective armour and descended from traditional swordsmanship instils in its practitioners besides physical skills societal values of etiquette and resilience as well connecting them to a traditional outlook which includes a gendered cultural identity. The book therefore illustrates an unexplored example of identity construction in Japan, one which legitimises women's sport experiences within a male-centric physical culture. It unpacks the notion of tradition in kendo and unravels its stultifying control over women's kendo participation and discusses the androgenicity of women's participation to highlight its subversive potential to develop women as leaders in sport politics and other fields which continue to be very male dominated in Japan. Reiki Reflections Rev.
