Theravada Buddhism define mindfulness and the practice of cultivating it It then offers a critique of the contemporary attempts to explain mindfulness as a kind of attention The author argues that mindfulness is not attention nor can it be understood as a mere modification of the attentive process Rather becoming mindful involves a radical shift in perspective According to the author s account being mindful is the feeling of being tuned in to the open horizon which is contrasted with Edmund Husserl s transcendental horizon The book also elucidates the difference between the practice of cultivating mindfulness with the practice of the phenomenological epoch which reveals new possibilities for the practice of phenomenology itself Phenomenological Reflections on Mindfulness in the Buddhist Tradition will appeal to scholars and advanced students interested in phenomenology Buddhist philosophy and comparative philosophy Reflection of Tsunamis John Douglas Cochrane, Robert S. Arthur, 1948

Handbook of Research on Field-Based Teacher Education Hodges, Thomas E., Baum, Angela C., 2018-10-26 Teacher education is an evolving field with multiple pathways towards teacher certification Due to an increasing emphasis on the benefits of field based learning teachers can now take alternative certification pathways to become teachers The Handbook of Research on Field Based Teacher Education is a pivotal reference source that combines field based components with traditional programs creating clinical experiences and on the job learning opportunities to further enrich teacher education While highlighting topics such as certification design preparation programs and residency models this publication explores theories of teaching and learning through collaborative efforts in pre Kindergarten through grade 12 settings This book is ideally designed for teacher education practitioners and researchers invested in the policies and practices of educational design Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution Cosmic energies and mankind: graphs for reflection Николай Конюхов, 2018-09-13 This book is about the facts of fundamental dependency between the mankind development and cosmic energies both electromagnetic and non electromagnetic ones The facts are systematized in graphs Their interpretation and conclusions are a prerogative of the readers It s not a simple one For those who are used to think independently

Belief and Its Neutralization Marcus Brainard, 2012-02-01 Presenting the first step by step commentary on Husserl s Ideas I Marcus Brainard s Belief and Its Neutralization provides an introduction not only to this central work but also to the whole of transcendental phenomenology

Brainard offers a clear and lively account of each key element in Ideas I along with a novel reading of Husserl one which may well cause scholars to reconsider many long standing views on his thought especially on the role of belief the effect and scope of the epoch and the significance of the universal neutrality modification NASA Technical Translation ,1967
