Environment and behavior studies Irwin Altman,1976 H. Rider Haggard - Ultimate Collection: 60+ Works in One

Volume Henry Rider Haggard,2023-12-30 H Rider Haggard Ultimate Collection 60 Works in One Volume presents a comprehensive anthology of Haggard s prolific contributions to the adventure and fantasy genres encapsulating his signature blend of exotic settings colonial themes and larger than life characters Spanning novels short stories and essays this collection showcases Haggard s vivid prose style rich imagery and imaginative narratives that often reflect Victorian sensibilities and the era s fascination with exploration and empire Readers will encounter legendary works such as King Solomon s Mines and She which not only entertain but also serve as a lens through which to examine colonial ideology and the interplay of civilization and savagery Haggard an English writer born in 1856 embarked on a path influenced by his early experiences in South Africa where he worked as a farmer and a land surveyor These experiences ignited his passion for storytelling infusing his writings with authentic depictions of African landscapes and cultures His unique perspective as an outsider contributing to the prevailing discourse of his time adds depth to his exploration of themes like adventure mystery and the supernatural making his work resonate with readers then and now For readers seeking to delve into the adventurous realms of imagination and historical narrative this ultimate collection is an essential addition to any literary library Haggard s captivating storytelling and engaging prose invite exploration making this compendium a treasure trove for both scholars and casual readers alike Experience the wonder of Haggard s world where adventure beckons at every turn Cybernetics and the Constructed Environment Zihao Zhang,2024-07-24

Grounded in contemporary landscape architecture theory and practice Cybernetics and the Constructed Environment blends examples from art design and engineering with concepts from cybernetics and posthumanism offering a transdisciplinary examination of the ramifications of cybernetics on the constructed environment Cybernetics or the study of communication and control in animals and machines has grown increasingly relevant nearly 80 years after its inception Cyber physical systems sensing networks and spatial computing algorithms and intelligent machines create endless feedback loops with human and non human actors co producing a cybernetic environment Yet when an ecosystem is meticulously managed by intelligent machines can we still call it wild nature Posthumanism ideas such as new materialism actor network theory and object oriented ontology have become increasingly popular among design disciplines including landscape architecture and may have provided transformative frameworks to understand this entangled reality However design still entails a sense of intentionality and an urge to control How do we then address the tension between the designer s intentionality and the co produced reality of more than human agents in the cybernetic environment Is posthumanism enough to develop a framework to think beyond our all too human ways of thinking For researchers scholars practitioners and students in environmental design and engineering disciplines this book maps out a paradigm of environmentalism and ecological design rooted in non communication and uncontrollability and puts a speculative turn on cybernetics Chapters 8 and 9 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Environment and Behavior Studies Irwin Altman,Kathleen Christensen,2012-12-06 This eleventh volume in the series departs from the pattern of earlier volumes Some of those volumes addressed research design and policy topics in terms of environmental settings for example homes communities neighborhoods and public places Others focused on environmental users for example children and the elderly The present volume examines the field of environment and behavior studies itself in the form of intellectual histories of some of its most productive and still visible senior participants In so doing we hope to provide readers with a grand sweep of the field its research and design content methodology institutions and past and future trajectories through the experiences and intellectual histories of its participants Why intellectual histories Several factors led to the decision to launch this project For one 1989 was an anniversary and commemorative year for the Environmental Design Research Association perhaps the major and most long standing interdisciplinary organization of environment and behavior researchers and practitioners Established in 1969 this organization has been the vehicle for generations of researchers and practitioners from many disciplines to come together annually to exchange ideas present papers and develop professional and personal relationships It held its first and twentieth meetings in North Carolina with the twentieth conference substantially devoted to discussions of the past present and future of the field a taking stock so to speak Thus it seemed appropriate to launch a volume on intellectual histories at this significant juncture in the life of the field

Spirituality and Healing Wynne DuBray, 2001-11 In today's time spiritual healing has become important This book provides an overview of spiritual healing from a multicultural perspective offering useful information for social workers and other human services practitioners for working with clients of color Basic Income, Disability Pensions and the Australian Political Economy Jennifer Mays, 2019-12-03 Global developments in basic income have reinvigorated political debates on the necessity of progressing to universal basic income implementation Basic income is a powerful strategy for addressing poverty gaps and growing inequality This book provides new insights and strategies from an Australian political economy perspective to respond to implementation challenges and distributive justice The book positions the disability dimension and disability pensions in relation to basic income to explore strategies for strengthening universal provisions It illustrates the need for socially just conditions and adequate financing to underpin redistribution as a way of safeguarding the sustainability of basic income Encyclopedia of Communication Theory Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2009-08-18 With more than 300 entries these two volumes provide a one stop source for a comprehensive overview of communication theory offering current descriptions of theories as well as the background issues and concepts that comprise these theories This is the first resource to summarize in one place the diversity of theory in the communication field Key Themes Applications and Contexts Critical Orientations Cultural Orientations Cybernetic and Systems Orientations Feminist Orientations Group and Organizational Concepts Information Media and Communication Technology International and Global Concepts Interpersonal Concepts Non Western Orientations Paradigms Traditions and Schools Philosophical Orientations Psycho Cognitive Orientations Rhetorical Orientations Semiotic Linguistic and Discursive Orientations Social Interactional Orientations Theory Metatheory Methodology and Inquiry Sexual Violence in Intimacy M. Gabriela Torres, Kersti Yllö, 2020-11-26 Integrating interdisciplinary and cross cultural analysis this volume advances our understanding of sexual violence in intimacy through the development of more nuanced and evidence based conceptual frameworks Sexual violence in intimacy is a global pandemic that causes individual physical and emotional harm as well as wider social suffering It is also legal and culturally condoned in much of the world Bringing together international and interdisciplinary research the book explores marital rape as individual suffering that is best understood in cultural and institutional context Gendered narratives and large scale surveys from India Ghana and Africa Diasporas Pacific Islands Denmark New Zealand the United States and beyond illuminate cross cultural differences and commonalities Methodological debates concerning etic and emic approaches and de colonial challenges are addressed Finally a range of policy and intervention approaches including art state rhetoric health care and criminal justice are explored This book provides much needed scholarship to guide policymakers practitioners and activists as well as for researchers studying gender based violence marriage and kinship and the legal and public health concerns of women globally It will be relevant for upper level students and scholars in anthropology sociology psychology women s studies social work and public and global health
