Reflections in Time Kevin Vandeyck Ph.D, 2013-01-12 Akira was born into a life that was filled with misery and deception From birth taught the ways of the ninja and then something more Transformed into something that was so distant from the human race A weapon But he fell in love and that is never allowed in the life of a ninja This tale chronicles a short trip in his life

Sensory Reflections Fiona Griffiths, Kathryn Starkey, 2018-10-22 This volume draws on emerging scholarship at the intersection of two already vibrant fields medieval material culture and medieval sensory experience The rich potential of medieval matter most obviously manuscripts and visual imagery but also liturgical objects coins textiles architecture graves etc to complement and even transcend purely textual sources is by now well established in medieval scholarship across the disciplines So too attention to medieval sensory experiences most prominently emotion has transformed our understanding of medieval religious life and spirituality violence power and authority friendship and constructions of both the self and the other Our purpose in this volume is to draw the two approaches together plumbing medieval material sources for traces of sensory experience above all ephemeral and physical experiences that unlike emotion are rarely fully described or articulated in texts
