approach May God bless you on your journey of personal conversion Wednesday February 17 2021 Lent A Time for True Prayer Ash Wednesday Year B But when you pray go to your inner room close the door and pray to your Father in secret And your Father who sees in secret will repay you Matthew 6 6 One of the most important parts of true prayer is that it takes place deep in the inner room of your soul It is there in the inner depths of your being that you will meet God Saint Teresa of vila one of the greatest spiritual writers in the history of our Church describes the soul as a castle in which God dwells Meeting Him praying to Him and communing with Him requires that we enter into the deepest and innermost chamber within this castle of our soul It is there in the innermost dwelling that the full glory and beauty of God is discovered God is not just a God who is out there far away in Heaven He is a God Who is closer and more intimate than we could ever imagine Lent is a time more than any other time of the year when we must strive to make that journey inward so as to discover the Indwelling of the Most Holy Trinity What does God want of you this Lent It s easy to begin Lent with more superficial commitments such as giving up a favorite food or doing an extra good deed Some choose to use Lent as a time to get in better physical shape and others decide to dedicate more time to spiritual reading or other holy exercises All of this is good and useful But you can be certain that the deepest desire of our Lord for you this Lent is that you pray Prayer of course is much more than saying prayers It s not only saying the rosary or meditating upon Scripture or reciting beautifully composed prayers Prayer is ultimately a relationship with God It s an encounter with the Triune God Who dwells within you True prayer is an act of love between you and your Beloved It s an exchange of persons your life for God s Prayer is an act of union and communion by which we become one with God and God becomes one with us The great mystics have taught us that there are many levels to prayer We often begin with the recitation of prayers such as the beautiful prayer of the rosary From there we meditate ponder and reflect deeply upon the mysteries of our Lord and His life We come to know Him more fully and little by little discover that we are no longer just thinking about God but we are gazing at Him face to face As we begin the holy season of Lent reflect upon your practice of prayer If the images of prayer presented here intrigue you then make a commitment to discover more Commit yourself to the discovery of God in prayer There is no limit and no end to the depth to which God wants to draw you through prayer True prayer is never boring When you discover true prayer you discover the infinite mystery of God And this discovery is more glorious than anything you could ever imagine in life My divine Lord I give myself to You this Lent Draw me in so that I may come to know You more Reveal to me Your divine presence dwelling deep within me calling me to Yourself May this Lent dear Lord be glorious as I strengthen my love and devotion through the discovery of the gift of true prayer Jesus I trust in You      Reflections for Sundays, Year A Rosalind Brown,2017-04-12 Reflections for Daily Prayer has nourished thousands of Christians for a decade with its inspiring and informed weekday Bible reflections Now Reflections for Sundays combines material from over the years with new writing to provide high quality reflections on the Principal Readings for Sundays and major Holy Days      Overcome with Paschal Joy Mark G.

Boyer,2016-06-30 The Lent Easter seasons cover one fourth of the year or 25 percent of the liturgical year One of the many things we do as Roman Catholics is sing Lenten and Easter hymns During Lent we express our sorrow for sin as we pray fast and give alms During Easter we shout Alleluias at the end of many hymns to express our praise of God for having raised Christ from the dead Thus those who observe Lent and Easter sing religious hymns written for each season The sounds of Lenten hymns in minor keys give way to Easter hymns in major ones This book presents an exercise for every day of Lent and Easter that combines the daily Scripture texts from the Lectionary for Mass with religious hymns sung during Lent and Easter It is designed to be used by individuals for private prayer or by families for public prayer A six part exercise is offered for every one of the 135 entries 1 the liturgical day 2 the daily Scripture texts 3 a verse from a traditional hymn 4 a reflection 5 a question for personal meditation and 6 a concluding prayer

The Living Word™ 2016-2017: Sunday Gospel Reflections and Activities for Teens Compilation,      Ascent into Heaven in Luke-Acts David W. Pao ,David K. Bryan ,2016-12-01

In comparison with other aspects of Jesus life and ministry his ascent into heaven has often been overlooked within the history of the church However considering its placement at the end of the Gospel and the beginning of Acts the only narrative depictions of the event in the New Testament the importance of Jesus ascent into heaven is undeniable for Luke's two volume work While select studies have focused on particular aspects of these accounts for Luke's story the importance of the ascension calls for renewed attention to the narratological and theological significance of these accounts within their historical and literary contexts In this volume leading scholars discuss the ascension narratives within the ancient contexts of biblical Second Temple Jewish and Greco Roman literature the literary contours of Luke Acts and questions of historical and theological significance in the wider milieu of New Testament theology and early Christian historiography The volume sets out new positions and directions for the next generations of interpreters regarding one of the most important and unique elements of the Lukan writings
