Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel and Hrushovski McHale shows that the common denominator is postmodernist fiction's ability to thrust its own ontological status into the foreground and to raise questions about the world or worlds in which we live Exploiting various theoretical approaches to literary ontology those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel Hrushovski and others and ranging widely over contemporary world literature McHale assembles a comprehensive repertoire of postmodernist fiction's strategies of world making and unmaking Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E. Byerman, 2010-08-01 In Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E Byerman discusses how black writers such as Toni Morrison Ishmael Reed and Ernest Gaines have moved away from the ideological rigidity of the black arts movement that arose in the 1960s to create a more expressive imaginative and artistic fiction inspired by the example of Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man Combining a strong concern for technique and craftsmanship with elements of African American heritage including jazz blues spirituals cautionary tales and voodoo these writers have created a vital fiction that celebrates the strength and resilience of the black American voice as it recounts the painful details and brutal episodes of black experience A 21st-Century Yogasanalia Mel Robin, 2017-06-01
